

 www.agiweb.org

AMERICAN GEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE – large site for this national organization that links to many other Geological associations, as well as several publications, databases and other on-line information resources. There is a Careers in Geosciences (also known as the Employment Ads) link where classified ads can be placed either in conjunction with the journal Geotimes, or web-based only.

 www.agu.org

AMERICAN GEOPHYSICAL UNION – website for the organization that provides information and networking for geoscience professionals. Those who are members are allowed access to the job listings as well as subscription to their journal Eos, where employment opportunities are advertised.

 www.awg.org

ASSOCIATION FOR WOMEN GEOSCIENTISTS – organization that promotes the professional development of women in geosciences fields. Website contains a Job Web page where employers can place ads. There is also an employment links to other sites that provide employment information to those in the Geosciences fields.

 www.geosociety.org

THE GEOLOGICAL SOCIETY OF AMERICA –national organization for the professional advancement and development of geoscientists. The website includes an employment link that contains a classified ads section for job position postings as well as opportunities for students and an employment services center.

 www.nabgg.com

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF BLACK GEOLOGISTS AND GEOPHYSICISTS -a nationwide organization with members in the oil and gas industry, academia, in government, and colleges and universities. Goal is to promote minority students, professional networking, and career opportunities in geosciences. Website has access to the their newsletter, sponsor information, and a Job Postings link.