

Modern Languages

 www.mla.org

MODERN LANGUAGES ASSOCIATION – organization that provides a forum where scholars and professionals in the studies of languages can relate and network. The website has a Job Information List (JIL) an electronic database for subscribers or members to post employment notices. (This database is linked with the ADE Association of Department of English and the ADFL Association of Department of Foreign Languages).

 www.linguistlist.org

THE LINGUIST LIST – a collaboration of several academic institutes, the organizations goal is providing an atmosphere where professionals and scholars can interact. The website has a Jobs page where related employment positions can be searched and posted online as well as in The Linguist List. There is also a Teaching and Learning page with resources and links to graduate and undergraduate programs in linguistics, and they also have a mailing lists page where other related linguist lists can be added or searched.