

 www.acphysci.com

ACADEMIC PHYSICIAN AND SCIENTIST - a very compressive online resource for recruiting in academic medicine. Is associated with the Association of American Medical Colleges. Organization offers free subscription to those members of the US medical academic community. Has news, classified advertising, and a link to the AAMC website.

 www.awis.org

ASSOCIATION FOR WOMEN IN SCIENCE – a site dedicated to equality for women in the science, math and technology fields. Of interest is their job listing link for research and academic position posting plus advertising opportunities published six times a year.

 www.nsf.gov/od/cawmset

COMMISSION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF WOMEN AND MINORITIES IN SCIENCE, ENGINEERING AND TECHNOLOGY – this was only a temporary committee set up to research and recommend ways to recruit and retain these groups into SET fields/professions. Although no longer running, the committee's findings and publications are still available for viewing/download. Of interest is their report/brochure, the testimonies and meeting synopses from their Meetings link on best practices (July 20, 1999) and effective strategies (Oct. 6-7 1999), and their findings/briefings from their last meeting (July 13 2000).

 www.iwitts.com

INSTITUTE FOR WOMEN IN TRADES, TECHNOLOGY AND SCIENCE - national online resource service advancing the placement of women in technology, science and other related fields. Through the WomenTechWorld page there is the E-jobs posting site. They also have free e-mail mailing lists including one for employers interested in recruiting women.

 www.mrs.org

MATERIALS RESEARCH SOCIETY - interdisciplinary organization of academia, industry and government promoting materials researchers. They have a link to the Women in materials science and engineering site. Also contains classified ads section from the MRS bulletin and links to many publications.

 www.sciweb.com

SCIWEB – web site of the Life Sciences Homepage has an online career resource area, links to those looking for a job and those wanting to post their resumes.

 www.sacnas.org

SOCIETY FOR ADVANCEMENT OF CHICANO AND NATIVE AMERICANS IN SCIENCE – website for the SACNAC which has provided strong national leadership in improving and expanding opportunities for minorities in the scientific workforce and academia; mentoring college students within science, mathematics and engineering for almost 30 years. Has links for career advancement, online internship resources job mentoring and placement, and other programs that encourage minority students to excel in science and advance in their profession and in academia.

 www.mills.edu/ACAD_INFO/MCS/SPERTUS/Gender/wom_and_min.html

WOMEN AND MINORITIES IN SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING - an extensive database listing by category minority and women in science and engineering websites. Related sites contain information, articles, organizations, profiles, etc.

 www.geocities.com/CapeCanaveral/Lab/9137/women_in_science.html

WOMEN IN SCIENCE RESOURCES – this is another website database of resources online. There are many sites here related to women in science and technology fields.

 www.witi.org

WOMEN IN TECHNOLOGY INTERNATIONAL – one of the only international organization to help advance women's participation in technology fields. Has a WITI4Hire link that has resume building and posting Employer profiles and job searches.

 www.worldwit.org

WORLD WIT; Women in Technology – online membership resource for professional women in technology fields. The website offers 50 free e-mail subscription lists where job positions may be posted and replied to