

 www.eco.utexas.edu/joe/

AMERICAN ECONOMICS ASSOCIATION, JOB OPENINGS FOR ECONOMISTS – JOE is a branch from the AEA and University of Texas in Austin that publishes job openings monthly, except January and July.

 www.aaea.org/sections.cosbae/index.htm

COMMITTEE ON THE OPPORTUNITIES AND STATUS OF BLACKS IN AGRICULTURAL ECONOMICS – a committee within the AAEEA that's goal is to promote blacks/minorities interests in agricultural economics. Website hosts a listserv that can be subscribed to which allows for networking, and even posting announcements.

 www.cswep.org/

COMMITTEE ON THE STATUS OF WOMEN IN THE ECONOMICS PROFESSION – a branch of the American Economic Association that represents women and the promotion of women in the field of economics. Along with its association with the AEA the CSWEP also puts out its own newsletter, hosts events that allow women to network offers awards, membership and has a Resource link for job listings.

 www.aaea.org/sections.cwae/index.htm

COMMITTEE ON WOMEN IN AGRICULTURAL ECONIMICS – A sub-committee of the AAEEA (American Agricultural Economics Association) created to promote the welfare of women in Ag. Economics. This website manages an electronic mail network where members can post announcements. Also has an “Employment for Experienced Professionals” link to listings of jobs.