Application for Board of Higher Education Scholarship

The North Dakota State Board of Higher Education Scholarship consists of a waiver of tuition. This award is made to a limited number of high-quality graduate students nominated by faculty advisers and approved by the Graduate Dean. Selection is based upon need, graduate record, residence, and recommendation of the faculty adviser.

Awards are generally made to students who

1. have completed at least 10 graduate credits,
2. are in full-standing status, and
3. have an approved plan of Study

Applications should be submitted by the academic adviser fifteen (15) days prior to the beginning of the academic session. A new form needs to be submitted for each semester. Normally, support will be provided for only four semesters (both summer sessions counting as one semester).

Self-Support courses and Distance and Continuing Education courses are not covered by this scholarship.
