

CHILDREN • PARENTS • FAMILIES

HUMAN DEVELOPMENT & FAMILY SCIENCE FACULTY RESEARCH SHOWCASE 2

Kristen Benson

Research Interests: gender identity and family/partner relationships, collaborative approaches to family therapy education and training, qualitative methodology

Brandy Randall

Research Interests: Child, Adolescent Development
Relational and contextual influences on adolescents' and young adults' positive and problem behaviors

Sean Brotherson

Research Interests: Parenting and fatherhood; Health marriages; Family stress; Rural families; Grief and bereavement; Family life education; Family policy

Tom Stone Carlson

Research Interests: Narrative therapy and community work; Feminist theories and methodologies; Men and gender accountability; Anti-racism and social justice issues; Spirituality

Melissa O'Conner

Research Interests: Age-related differences and changes in cognitive and functional abilities; quantitative methods and psychometrics; interventions for improving everyday functioning

Christi McGeorge

Research Interests: Heterosexism and homophobia; Single parenting; Women's history; Gender socialization from a feminist perspective

Monday, October 1st 2012

NDSU Memorial Union

Room of Nations

3:00 - 4:30 p.m.