

Myron Schwinkendorf – BS 1951 Pharmacy

Myron Earl Schwinkendorf, 83, Richardson, Texas, formerly of Mandan, passed away of natural causes at his home on Aug. 13, 2012.

Myron was born June 7, 1929, in New Salem, to Edwin and Hilda (Guenther) Schwinkendorf. He graduated from Mandan High School in 1947, and received his pharmacy degree from North Dakota State University in 1951. Myron served in the Army, married and relocated to Texas.

Myron retired from his career as a pharmacist in 1986 and lived quietly, comfortably and happily. He was an avid reader and all who knew him found him to be gentle and exceptionally intellectual. He visited New York City and London on numerous occasions, enjoying the museums and theatrical productions the cities offered.

He is survived by his sister, Darlene (Kenneth) Porsborg, Mandan; former wife, Joan Potter, Fort Worth, Texas; his sons, Jon Schwinkendorf, Winter Haven, Fla., Robert Schwinkendorf, San Antonio, Texas, and James (Kristin) Schwinkendorf, Arlington, Texas; and his granddaughters, Laura Schwinkendorf, Denver, Jennifer Schwinkendorf, Austin, Texas, and Kristina Schwinkendorf, Winter Haven, Fla.

He was preceded in death by his parents; and his brother, Ron (Carol) Schwinkendorf, Scottsdale, Ariz.
