

2011-2012 Programs Recap

September 2011

Parliamentary Procedures by Kris Mickelson

In order for a presiding officer to conduct a good business meeting, the entire membership should be informed of parliamentary procedure. Parliamentary procedure helps the officers and members follow a logical order in conducting a meeting. Each member should consider the five principles of Parliamentary law:

- Courtesy and justice to all.
- Consider only one thing at a time.
- The majority rules.
- The minority must be heard
- The purpose is to facilitate action

October 2011

Open Enrollment by Tara Hoyme

Current open enrollment dates and information for health insurance, vision and dental insurances, and retirement.

November 2011

Tuition Increase/Budget Update by President Bresciani

Student Success Tuition Model by Provost Rafert

The model must have a neutral financial effect to the student and the university and this review is for undergraduate and professional students. Graduate students have not been reviewed.

December 2011

Winter Survival Tips by Tammy Aronson, Safety Office

January 2012

NDSU Key Message by Anne Robinson-Paul, University Relations

Presented the importance of the new key message and branding

February 2012

No Program

March 2012

FORWARD by David Wittrock

It's basically a program to help Women Faculty advance. It was started by an NSF grant as a 5 year program.

April 2012

Community of Respect by Gennifer Baker

A campus training to learn about yourself so you can appreciate others differences.

May 2012

Elections