

Faculty and Staff Offices

Students should not enter faculty/staff offices or the main office without an express invitation from a theatre faculty or staff member to do so. Theatre faculty and staff members may be seen during their office hours or by appointment. Students should not use any machinery or supplies contained in these offices unless they are authorized by a faculty or staff member to do so.