

Application Form
Robert and Patty Hendrickson Faculty Development Fund for the College of Human Development and Education

The Robert and Patty Hendrickson Faculty Development Fund for the College of Human Development and Education at North Dakota State University, Fargo, North Dakota, was established for funding faculty development efforts such as, Summer Study Grants; attendance at off campus lectures or classes; attendance at workshops or master classes; study under master teachers; preparation, publication, presentation and exhibition of research and other scholarly work; and, for other purposes supported by the faculty member's unit chair and approved by the Dean of the College. Further, the Fund may be used for degree completion grants to include dissertation completion if a case can be made for how the work will contribute to students and the academic program and is consistent with unit and college goals.

One copy of this application form (typed) must be submitted by Tuesday, April 1st to Dean Virginia Clark Johnson. Applicants will be notified of funding decisions at the Faculty/Staff Recognition Breakfast, May 5th, 2008.
