Training for aspiring, elected and appointed leaders serving on boards, councils and committees

Jamestown

November 16th 9 AM—4 PM
Stutsman County Extension Office
502 10th Ave SE, Jamestown

This training will help participants:

▪ Feel better prepared to serve as an effective board, council or committee member
▪ Recognize the components of an effective meeting
▪ Learn basic parliamentary procedure and how to use it
▪ Understand different personality styles and how they can work together effectively
▪ Use effective tools when dealing with conflict

Cost: $75 includes lunch, breaks and training materials

To register, contact:
Stutsman County Extension Office
701-252-9030
ndsu.stutsman.extension@ndsu.edu

Who should attend? Existing leaders who serve in elected, appointed or volunteer positions such as church council, city council, school board, township officers, childcare board, weed board or anyone who needs some pointers and wants to feel more confident in serving on a board or in a leadership position.