

FACULTY QUALIFICATIONS GUIDELINES
NORTH DAKOTA STATE UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

Standards for Faculty Qualifications
Approved by Faculty – 5/04/18

College of Business faculty are committed to maintaining professional competence and currency. This commitment is consistent with faculty qualification standards established by AACSB International. AACSB standards require faculty to be properly trained and to maintain currency through programs of continued scholarship, professional certification and development, consulting, and other activities associated with life-long learning. It is crucial for all faculty — tenured, tenure-track, and non-tenure track -- to meet College faculty qualification standards. The table below reports the AACSB minimum percentages for each category. Since the College currently has four Masters’ Degree programs and a PhD program, the College standard should be higher than the minimum. Therefore, the College standard is for 50% or more of our faculty to be Scholarly Academics (SA), as shown in the table below.

Percentages for Each Category

Faculty Categories	AACSB Minimum Percentage	NDSU College of Business Percentage
Scholarly Academics (SA)	40%	50%
Scholarly Academics (SA) Practice Academics (PA) Scholarly Practitioners (SP)	60%	60%
Scholarly Academics (SA) Practice Academics (PA) Scholarly Practitioners (SP) Instructional Practitioners (IP)	90%	90%

AACSB also recognizes the importance of administrative duties to the ethical, effective, and efficient operation of the college. AACSB recommends that these duties be recognized as part of an individual’s effort to remain academically or professionally qualified. The rationale for this recognition is to encourage individuals to pursue significant administrative responsibilities within the college.

SCHOLARLY ACADEMIC (SA) GUIDELINES:

According to AACSB Standards, “Scholarly Academics sustain currency and relevance through scholarly and related activities. Normally, SA status is granted to newly hired faculty members who earned their research doctorates within the last five years...”

Initial SA Qualification: Faculty must hold a doctoral degree in a discipline related to their area of teaching. Faculty who earned their doctoral degree within the last five years automatically maintain Scholarly Academic status.

Maintaining SA Status: Faculty who have earned their doctoral degree more than five years ago must demonstrate academic engagement through the following activities:

1. During the preceding five years, the SA faculty member must publish two refereed journal articles.¹ One of these must be published in a journal that ranks B or higher on the College of Business’ Approved Journal Quality List.
2. In addition, the faculty member must complete two additional scholarly activities from the list below. An activity may be repeated.
 - Publish a refereed journal article
 - Author a research monograph
 - Serve as an editor of an academic journal²
 - Serve as an editor of a scholarly book
 - Publish a refereed magazine article
 - Publish a business case in a refereed outlet
 - Author a textbook
 - Serve as an elected officer of an international or national professional organization
 - Present a refereed paper or symposium at an international, national or regional conference
 - Serve as a Special Edition editor for an academic journal
 - Receive a grant
 - Publish an article in a non-refereed national professional journal
 - Author a chapter in a scholarly book
 - Publish an article in a non-refereed national magazine
 - Serve on the Editorial board for a disciplinary journal
 - Serve as a referee for one or more journal articles in a given year²

¹ Throughout this document, the date of publication is the applicable date for considering intellectual contributions.

² Counts as one scholarly activity for each twelve-month period in which the faculty member is engaged in this activity.

PRACTICE ACADEMIC (PA) GUIDELINES

According to AACSB Standards, “Practice Academics sustain currency and relevance through professional engagement, interaction, and relevant activities. Normally, PA status applies to faculty members who augment their initial preparation as academic scholars with development and engagement activities that involve substantive linkages to practice, consulting, or other forms of engagement, etc., based on the faculty members’ earlier work as an SA faculty member.”

Maintaining PA Status: As mentioned above, faculty members who have earned their doctoral degrees within the last five years are considered Scholarly Academics. To be considered Practice Academics, Faculty members who have earned their doctoral degrees more than five years ago must demonstrate professional engagement through the following activities:

1. During the preceding five years, the PA faculty member must complete two practitioner activities from Category 1 below.
2. In addition, the faculty member must complete a total of two additional activities from Categories 1 or 2. An activity may be repeated.

Category 1

- Work on a significant business consulting project related to the faculty member’s discipline
- Develop and present an executive education program
- Publish an article in a practitioner oriented publication
- Participate in a faculty internship related to the faculty member’s field of teaching
- Serve on a board or other oversight position for a profit or not-for-profit organization
- Consult/advise/counsel clients in private practice in the faculty member’s discipline¹
- Publish a business case for teaching
- Publish a magazine article
- Serve as an editor of a practitioner magazine
- Maintain a professional certification¹

Category 2

- Serve as an elected officer of an international or national professional organization
- Appear as an expert in the media²
- Publish a refereed journal article
- Author a research monograph
- Serve as an editor of an academic journal¹
- Serve as an editor of a scholarly book
- Author a textbook

¹ Counts as one practitioner activity for each twelve-month period in which the faculty member is engaged in this activity.

² Can only be counted once.

- Present a refereed paper or symposium at an international, national or regional conference
- Serve as a Special Edition editor for an academic journal
- Receive a grant
- Author a chapter in a scholarly book
- Serve on the Editorial board for a disciplinary journal
- Serve as a referee for one or more journal articles in a given year¹

SCHOLARLY PRACTITIONER (SP) GUIDELINES

According to AACSB Standards, “Scholarly Practitioners sustain currency and relevance through continued professional experience, engagement, or interaction and scholarship related to their professional background and experience. Normally, SP status applies to practitioner faculty members who augment their experience with development and engagement activities involving substantive scholarly activities in their fields of teaching.”

A Scholarly Practitioner faculty normally holds at least a Master’s degree in an area related to the courses that they teach. Upon the time of hiring, the scholarly practitioner qualified faculty member’s experience should be relevant, current, and significant in duration and level of responsibility.² In addition, scholarly practitioner qualified faculty are engaged in scholarly work and professional development that maintains their currency in the field.

During the preceding five years, the SP faculty member must publish one refereed journal article in a journal on the College of Business’ Approved Journal Quality List at the time of submission or acceptance.

In addition, a faculty member must complete a total of three additional activities from the categories below with at least one from each category. An activity may be repeated.

Scholarly activities:

- Publish a refereed journal article
- Author a research monograph
- Serve as an editor of an academic journal¹
- Serve as an editor of a scholarly book
- Author a textbook
- Present a refereed paper or symposium at an international, national or regional conference
- Serve as a Special Edition editor for an academic journal

¹ Counts as one scholarly activity for each twelve-month period in which the faculty member is engaged in this activity.

² The faculty member’s experience should be at a level of responsibility and duration to indicate professional expertise in their teaching area. Normally, this would entail working full time for at least 3 years in a job that requires the use of advanced analytical or managerial skills. The initial evaluation of relevance, currency, and significance of experience will be made by the Department Chair. The evaluation will be reviewed by the Dean prior to hiring.

- Receive a grant
- Publish an article in a non-refereed national professional journal
- Author a chapter in a scholarly book
- Serve on the Editorial board for a disciplinary journal
- Serve as a referee for one or more journal articles in a given year¹

Practitioner activities:

- Maintain a professional certification¹
- Work on a significant business consulting project related to the faculty member’s discipline
- Develop and present an executive education program
- Publish an article in a practitioner oriented publication
- Participate in a faculty internship related to the faculty member’s field of teaching
- Serve on a board or other oversight position for a profit or not-for-profit organization
- Serve as an elected officer of an international or national professional organization
- Appear as an expert in the media²
- Consult/advise/counsel clients in private practice in the faculty member’s discipline⁷
- Publish a business case for teaching
- Publish a magazine article
- Serve as an editor of a practitioner magazine

INSTRUCTIONAL PRACTITIONER (IP) GUIDELINES

According to AACSB Standards, “Instructional Practitioners sustain currency and relevance through continued professional experience and engagement related to their professional backgrounds and experience. Normally, IP status is granted to newly hired faculty members who join the faculty with significant and substantive professional experience...”

An Instructional Practitioner faculty normally holds at least a Master’s degree in an area related to the course taught. At the time of hire, the IP qualified faculty member’s experience should be relevant, current, and significant in duration and level of responsibility.³ In addition, IP qualified faculty are engaged in a professional development program that maintains their currency in the field.

During the preceding five years, the faculty member must complete four practitioner activities from the list below. An activity may be repeated.

¹ Counts as one practitioner activity for each twelve-month period in which the faculty member is engaged in this activity.

² Can only be counted once.

³ The faculty member’s experience should be at a level of responsibility and duration to indicate professional expertise in their teaching area. Normally, this would entail working full time for at least 3 years in a job that requires the use of advanced analytical or managerial skills. The initial evaluation of relevance, currency, and significance of experience will be made by the Department Chair. The evaluation will be reviewed by the Dean prior to hiring.

- Maintain a professional certification¹
- Work on a significant business consulting project related to the faculty member's discipline
- Develop and present an executive education program
- Participate in a faculty internship related to the faculty member's field of teaching
- Serve on a board or other oversight position for a profit or not-for-profit organization
- Serve as an elected officer of an international or national professional organization
- Publish a business case for teaching
- Publish a magazine article
- Serve as an editor of a practitioner magazine
- Publish an article in a non-refereed national professional journal
- Appear as an expert in the media²
- Serve as an elected officer of a regional or state professional organization
- Publish an article in a practitioner oriented publication.
- Receive a grant
- Consult/advise/counsel clients in private practice in the faculty member's discipline¹
- Continuing education activities in the faculty member's discipline¹

Maintaining Qualifications for Faculty with Administrative Duties

For faculty that are in the initial year of an administrative appointment, the requirements to remain academically/professionally qualified are the same as other faculty. However, in recognition of the importance of administrative duties to the operation of the college, requirements for academic/professional qualification will be reduced for those with significant administrative duties in subsequent years. Specific guidelines to maintain academic/professional qualifications are as follows:

For Faculty with Dean, Associate Dean, or Department Chair Appointments

Scholarly Academic (SA) Guidelines

- During the preceding five years, the SA faculty member must complete any two scholarly activities from the list on Page 2.

Practice Academic (PA) Guidelines

- During the preceding five years, the PA faculty member must complete any two activities from Categories 1 or 2 on Page 3.

For Other Faculty with Administrative Appointments

Requirements for maintaining academic/professional qualification will be reduced, based on administrative load.

¹ Counts as one practitioner activity for each twelve-month period in which the faculty member is engaged in this activity.

² Can only be counted once.

Scholarly Academic (SA) Guidelines

Administrative Appointment	Requirements (during preceding 5 years)
0 - 25%	Same as faculty without administrative appointments.
25 - 49%	Publish one refereed journal article on the College of Business' Approved Journal Quality List, and complete two additional scholarly activities from the Scholarly Academic list.
50 - 100%	Publish one refereed journal article, and complete one additional scholarly activity from the Scholarly Academic list.

Practice Academic (PA) Guidelines

Administrative Appointment	Requirements (during preceding 5 years)
0 - 25%	Same as faculty without administrative appointments.
25 - 49%	Publish one refereed journal article, and complete any two additional activities from Categories 1 or 2 on the Practice Academic list.
50 - 100%	Complete any two activities from Categories 1 or 2 on the Practice Academic list.

Scholarly Practitioner (SP) Guidelines

Administrative Appointment	Requirements (during preceding 5 years)
0 - 25%	Same as faculty without administrative appointments.
25 - 49%	Publish one refereed journal article, and complete any two additional scholarly or practitioner activities from the Scholarly Practitioner list.
50 - 100%	Complete any two scholarly or practitioner activities from the Scholarly Practitioner list.

Instructional Practitioner (IP) Guidelines

Administrative Appointment	Requirements (during preceding 5 years)
0 - 25%	Same as faculty without administrative appointments.
25 - 49%	Complete any three practitioner activities from the Instructional Practitioner list.
50 - 100%	Complete any two practitioner activities from the Instructional Practitioner list.

Transitioning from Administration to Full Time Faculty

For faculty that step out of administrative duties as Dean, Associate Dean, Department Chair, or other 100% administrative positions the standards to maintain faculty qualifications will follow the guidelines below:

Administrative Duration	Requirements (during preceding 5 years)
3 years or more of administrative service	Within five years of stepping out of administrative duties, requirements are the same as the reduced standards for “Other Faculty with Administrative Appointments” with 50 – 100 % administrative appointments in the table above. After that, the normal faculty qualification requirements will apply.
Less than 3 years of administrative service	Within five years of stepping out of administrative duties, in addition to the requirements for those with 3 years or more of administrative service, the requirement is one additional refereed journal article for SA, PA, or SP status, or two additional practitioner activities for IP status [i.e., the reduced qualification + 1 refereed journal article for SA, PA, or SP; the reduced qualification + 2 additional activities for IP]. After five years, the normal faculty qualification requirements will apply.