MAcc Learning Goals and Objectives (adopted 2/15/13)

1) Demonstrate knowledge of evolving accounting theory and policy.
   b. Demonstrate the effect of international accounting standards on internal and external decisions.

2) Apply broad problem-solving skills to accounting issues using various research strategies and techniques.
   a. Identify and research complex accounting-related issues and communicate the findings.
   b. Make and communicate professional judgments based on research findings.
   c. Demonstrate effective use of quantitative decision making tools.

3) Demonstrate professional values and attitudes.
   a. Demonstrate knowledge of codes of conduct for accounting professionals.
   b. Demonstrate the ability to integrate ethics into the decision making process.

4) Possess legal and technological knowledge of the environment in which the accounting profession operates.
   a. Assess the role of information technology as it supports the organization's operations, strategy, and innovation.
   b. Assess the role of IT from a managerial perspective.
   c. Analyze the role of the legal environment on business transactions and management decisions.