Master of Accountancy (MAcc.) Learning Goals and Outcomes  (last update: February 12, 2018)

1. Possess technical competency and professional knowledge
   a. Explain how accounting policies and standards are related to accounting theory
   b. Apply concepts of accounting standards, auditing standards, and taxation to business issues Assess the role of information technology as it supports the organization's operations, strategy and innovations
   d. Demonstrate effective use of data analytics tools for decision-making

2. Recognize and adhere to ethical standards and professional responsibilities
   a. Identify relevant professional conduct standards that apply to an ethical decision
   b. Recommend an appropriate course of action based on relevant legal and professional standards

3. Think critically and communicate effectively
   a. Identify accounting-related issues and recommend an appropriate course of action
   b. Effectively communicate a course of action in response to an accounting issue