CAPSTONE COURSE DESCRIPTION

Capstone course for Community Health Education Majors. Supervised field work in an approved professional setting with an emphasis on administration, supervision and program implementation leadership.

COURSE LEARNING OBJECTIVES

The following objectives have been identified as a means by which the above purposes may be achieved.

To provide:

1. opportunities to recognize, practice and apply theories and techniques learned in the classroom.
2. experiences in using many and varied health education methods and approaches so as to become competent in a professional role as a health education practitioner.
2. experiences through which the student becomes effective in initiating and continuing an environmental climate, which stimulates participation and program success.
3. experiences, which encourage development of professional interests, attitudes, and involvements.
4. experiences, which lend themselves to significant growth and development in competency, related to the individual needs of each intern.

EVALUATION PROCEDURES AND GRADING CRITERIA

This course is graded Pass/Fail. To pass the course the following must be completed.

1. Complete 13 weeks (40 hours/week) or 520 hours of fulltime work at a site of your choosing.
2. Maintain a weekly log of experiences
3. Develop a special project.
4. Write a narrative report on the agency.
5. Turn in all evaluation forms necessary.
6. Present an oral summary of the internship during the post-internship seminar.

GRADING SCALE

The final grade is determined by the student's performance at the internship, written assignments, site exit questionnaire, and presentation of the oral report. All written assignments are to be typed, grammatically correct and reflect a professional practitioner.

The allocation of the final grade based upon percentages obtained by the student for all assessment items, will be according to College of Human Development and Education Assessment Policy
