

From: Kenton Rodgers
Sent: Tuesday, December 09, 2014 12:24 PM
To: Larry Peterson
Subject: RE: CULE recommendations

Hi Larry:

Thanks for your reply. To be clear, I agree that engaging and interesting gen. ed. science courses should be our goal. But I do not think that a student's ability to engage in a science course will be advanced by decreasing the exposure to both didactic and laboratory experiences. Nor will their ability to productively engage in science and technology-based issues as citizens.

With respect, I remain concerned.

Best,
Kent