Attire and Etiquette

- Sunday: Wear your favorite 4-H shirt and jeans.
- Monday: Wear your provided Citizenship in Action shirt and jeans or khakis.
- Make sure to order the correct size of shirt when registering. Shirts are generously sized so you can be safe ordering your normal size.
- Participants will be representing themselves, North Dakota 4-H and all youth in general. You are expected to act respectfully and responsibly, and follow the 4-H Code of Conduct.

Lodging

Room arrangements are based on two to four youth per room and assigned by age and sex. Youth can request roommates when registering. If a county has only one participant, we will match with another county.

Chaperones: At least one adult chaperone must accompany every 10 youth. Counties must provide chaperones and may combine to share chaperones. Chaperones:
- Must register and pay the same fee as youth participants
- Will be asked to transport and accompany youth in their group to the UND School of Law, hotel and activities
- Will not room with youth participants and will be assigned two to a room

Highlights

Sunday: Meet at the School of Law for orientation, team building, break-out sessions, dinner and entertainment.
Monday: Reconvene back at the School of Law for a hands-on courtroom experience.

Here is a little taste of sessions you can participate in:

- Ethical Leadership – The ability to do the right thing has a significant impact on everyone around us and is key to an individual’s development as a leader. Discussion of ethical challenges and hands-on activities will deepen participants’ ability to recognize ethical problems and find solutions.

- We Connect – As we become more connected with the world, we need skills to become culturally sensitive citizens. Participants will engage in exercises that help widen our perspectives and open us up to new ways of thinking.

- Take 10 for Citizenship – Being a good citizen is about our choices, our interactions and our professionalism. Hands-on activities will help you better understand how you can be a role model and leader through citizenship.

- Judges Panel – What is a judge’s day really like? What does a judge really do? What are some of the tough situations in which judges find themselves? Real judges will help you understand this career.
