GENERAL INFORMATION
The North Dakota 4-H Horse Public Speaking contest is designed to encourage youth to discuss something related to horses and the horse industry. No visual aids are to be used in this contest. This program is designed to give 4-H’ers experience in the preparation and delivery of a horse related speech. This contest requires 4-H’ers to recognize, organize, and present information on a horse related topic. The timed speech must be orderly and through. This contest fosters confidence in a youth’s ability to present information in a logical and concise manner building their public speaking skills. 4-H’ers must acquire the ability to speak convincingly in public, expressing ideas effectively with poise and confidence. Furthermore, by participating in this contest a youth will increase their level of equine knowledge. Besides becoming responsible and educated horse people, this contest helps to build strong leadership skills, gain valuable communication and decision-making skills.

The winning 4-H senior team will have a choice to represent North Dakota at the Western National Round Up 4-H Horse Public Speaking Contest in Denver, Colorado.

OBJECTIVES & OUTCOMES:
A. Stimulate learning in equine science and the horse industry;
B. Youth develop positive interests and attitudes about equine science and related careers;
C. Youth gain a base of knowledge of equine science projects;
D. Youth will utilize skills and abilities to solve everyday situations;
E. Reward 4-H members for knowledge gained in a subject matter area;
F. Provide a competitive setting where attitudes of friendliness and fairness prevail;
G. Participants will process information, analyze complex problems and make informed decisions regarding current equine health, safety, welfare, ethics and other equine industry related issues;
H. Develop teamwork, self-confidence, public speaking and decision-making skills;
I. An increased number of participants seek out higher education opportunities and careers related to animal or equine science.
PRE-REGISTRATION REQUIRED (registration cost: $5 per individual)
Registration will go through 4H-Online

You will only need to register under ONE of your teammates for ALL divisions. You will see the registration process once you log in. Once logged in, select the Events tab. At the bottom of the screen select one of the members on your team, then select the event you want to register for (Public Speaking). If you are doing more than one contest, you will have to repeat the steps for the three different contests. I apologize for this inconvenience. Once you are on the Horse Public Speaking page, select the correct county. Then you will see the different boxes supplied for your teams in the junior and senior divisions. Changes and substitutions may be made at registration on the day of the contest. Lunch will be included this year – Please let us know if there are any dietary needs.

Make checks payable to 4-H Foundation and send to: NDSU, ATTN: Holly Halvorson, Dept. 7280 FLC 219. PO Box 6050, Fargo, ND 58108.

   b. He/she has participated in official post-secondary (university, college, junior college or technical school) competitive events of a similar nature in the same subject matter area. Neither can he/she be a member of a post-secondary team undergoing training in preparation of an event.
CONTEST DIVISIONS
Each age division is considered a separate contest and youth may enter one of the following divisions.

✱ Junior 4-H division: Youth ages 8 years of age before September 1, 2018 to age 13 as of December 31, 2018.

✱ Senior 4-H division: Youth age 14 to 18 on December 31, 2018 and enrolled in North Dakota 4-H as a full time 4-H member (not a short-term member).

✱ County agents and coaches are responsible for determining the age and member eligibility of participants in the State 4-H Contest from their respective clubs.

DRESS CODE
Participants shall follow the 4-H Dress Code: 4-H members must be dressed neatly and wear a solid white, yellow, gray, or green shirt with 4-H emblem on the front. County names or other affiliation should not be worn at the state contest in order to avoid bias. The clover may be imprinted, screened, or attached with an adhesive (if clovers are pinned to the shirt, use multiple pins and place pins discreetly underneath the chevron). Failure to comply will result in the deduction of 25 points from the individual or team score. 4-H members are asked to stay in official dress until completion of awards.

NUMBER OF TEAMS
Should the contest grow quicker than expected, in order to conduct the contest in a reasonable time frame, counties may be limited to one team or individual per age division. If your county has more than one team, register them and we will follow up if deemed necessary to reduce the number of teams.

CONTEST GUIDELINES
National 4-H Western National Roundup rules will apply. Local managers may modify rules and procedures as needed to conduct the event in the allowed time.

1. No electronic devices (phones, tablets, computers, etc.) will be allowed during the contest.
2. The subject matter must pertain to the horse industry. Speeches not appropriately related to the horse industry can be disqualified at the discretion of the judge(s).
3. No visual aids may be used, including handouts such as bibliographies or pamphlets. Contestants will be disqualified for using any visual aid, including handouts, prior to, during and after the speech.
4. Contestants may use notes. However, excessive use of notes may be counted against the contestant. This will be at the discretion of the judges.
5. Speeches should be original and constructed and delivered by 4-H’ers. Any form of plagiarism is strictly prohibited. Plagiarism can include, but is not limited to: Copying parts of a speech or presentation previously presented by another youth or individual; using text, phrases, photos or diagrams from and article, video, book, movie or other published work without giving credit to the author. Competitor’s resource citation should be specific, accurate and honest. If contest officials confirm plagiarism, the contestant will automatically be placed last, with a notation on the scorecard to reflect such infraction.
6. A public address system will not be used in the contest.
7. During the competition, the contestants may introduce themselves by name, county and speech topic.
8. Speeches should be 7-10 minutes in length for senior division or 3-5 minutes for junior division. Three points will be deducted from the total score on each judge’s score sheet for every minute (or fraction of a minute) under 9 minutes or over 12 minutes for Seniors. One point will be deducted from the total score on each judge’s score sheet for every minute (or fraction of a minute) under 3 minutes or over 8 minutes for Juniors. After the individual or team has been introduced by the superintendent, the time will start once the contestant(s) begin(s) to speak.

9. Contestants should cite their major reference materials at the end of the presentation. This time will not be counted in the allotted time.

10. Only the judge(s) may ask questions of the contestant. Question time will not be counted in the allotted time. Contestant should repeat the question, and then answer it.

11. Contestant order will be determined by a random drawing and announced at the beginning of the event.

12. No coaching from parents or coaches during the presentation. Once the individual has started their speech, they may not receive assistance from any coach, parent, audience member, or other person. The penalty for violating this rule is disqualification.

13. The judge’s scores are final.

14. Ties will be broken by first the judges’ accumulated delivery score, second by the judges accumulated organization score and third on content and accuracy scores.

15. Judges will consider the questions listed under each section of the following scorecard.

OFFICIALS:

1. Moderator: The moderator helps to line up the next presenter/speaker to keep the contest running smoothly and efficiently. This individual allows the judge time to evaluate and make comments before the next participant begins.

2. Judge: A judge can be anyone with a strong background in the subject matter of the equine industry. The judge will evaluate the participant based on the scorecard criteria being fair and consistent across all participants.

3. Time Keeper: The timekeeper will monitor elapsed time for each timed event and will indicate to the moderator when time has expired.

AWARDS:

Ribbons will be given to the top 5 in each division.

EQUIPMENT:

Equipment needs must be brought by the contestant.
