Land Judging

State 4-H and FFA Land Judging will be held Wednesday, August 2nd and Thursday, August 3rd in Dickinson. Wednesday afternoon/evening and Thursday morning will be practice site days, and the competition will be at 1:00 PM on the 2nd.

There will be a meal provided for $7/Person. Tentative meal will include hot dogs, hamburgers, beans, chips, and a drink. Coaches/instructors need to contact the NDSU Stark-Billings County Extension office by Monday, July 31st with a total number of people (students and adults) for meal planning purposes.

Dickinson State University Ag Department will be used as headquarters for the competition. The practice site maps and keys, registration, tabulations, and awards will be held in this location.

Schedule – Mountain Time

August 2nd
1:00 pm  Practice Pits Available
Pick up practice site directions and key at Dickinson State University Ag Department. After 5:00 pm this information will be available between the front doors of the Ag Department building.

August 3rd
8:00 am  Practice Pits Available
11:30 am  Contest Registration and Lunch at Dickinson State University Ag Department
12:30 pm  Contest Instructions
12:45 pm  Travel to Contest Location
1:00 pm  Contest Begins
3:00 pm  Return to Dickinson State University Ag Department
          Awards to Follow Completion of Tabulation
5:00 pm  Travel Home

Registration form and information available on https://www.ndsu.edu/4h/programs_events/state_4_h_contests/land_judging/