

Bullying Resources

Stopbullying.gov is the official United States government website that provides quality information regarding how to prevent and respond to bullying.

<http://www.stopbullying.gov/prevention/at-school/index.html>

PACER's National Bullying Prevention Center offers many anti-bullying resources. Some publications may be purchased, while other resources are free to download.

<http://www.pacer.org/bullying/resources/publications/>

The National Education Association provides viewers 10 Steps to Stop and Prevent Bullying. This site also offers users the ability to download Bully Free Public Service announcements to stay up-to-date on the latest anti-bullying events.

<http://www.nea.org/home/51629.htm>

Stop Bullying by Cartoon Network provides both adults and young people with valuable information targeting bullying. Check out the link below to find helpful anti-bullying resources and fun anti-bullying activities for kids.

<http://www.cartoonnetwork.com/promos/stopbullying/adult-resources/index.html>

Healthy Children lists facts about bullying and recommendations to caring adults regarding how to talk with kids about bullying.

<http://www.healthychildren.org/English/safety-prevention/at-play/Pages/Bullying-Its-Not-Ok.aspx>

Prevent Child Abuse North Dakota provides numerous information and resources with the goal of eliminated child abuse in North Dakota

<http://www.pcand.org/>

Kids Health offers strategies to keep kids from being the targets of bullying and to stop bullying that has already started.

http://kidshealth.org/parent/emotions/feelings/bully-proof.html?tracking=P_RelatedArticle

Bullying Resources

Cyberbullying Research Center discusses the nature, causes, and consequences of cyberbullying for parents, educators, counselors, and others.

<http://cyberbullying.us/>

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention offers a podcast focusing on Electronic Aggression in young people.

<http://www2c.cdc.gov/podcasts/player.asp?f=7306#transcript>

Girls Health focuses on bullying among girls and provides helpful strategies regarding how to talk with girls about bullying.

<http://www.girlshealth.gov/bullying/>

Teaching Tolerance provides lessons, articles, and blog-based discussions that targeting bullying while spreading the message of embracing diversity.

http://www.tolerance.org/search/apachesolr_search/bullying

Walk a Mile in Their Shoes is an article that focuses on the children who have special needs and the bullying of this population.

<http://www.abilitypath.org/areas-of-development/learning--schools/bullying/articles/walk-a-mile-in-their-shoes.pdf>

Bully Beware lists a quick sheet for parents to refer to when confronted with a case of cyberbullying.

<http://www.bullybeware.com/cyberbullying-tips.html>

No Bully is a nonprofit organization working to eradicate bullying and cyberbullying. Provides evidence based curriculum to purchase as well as many videos including a great up stander video by Burger King.

<https://nobully.org/>

GLSEN provides many anti-bullying lessons that cultivate the creation of safe places for all people.

<http://glsen.org/educate/resources/lesson-plans>

Compiled by: Shane Ringdahl Center for 4-H Graduate Assistant 2014

Updated by: Sue Quamme, NDSU Extension 4-H Youth Development Specialist, 2017