

Sandy Grande, Ph.D., M.A., B.F.A.

Dr. Sandy Grande is a professor and chair in the education department of Connecticut College and a faculty fellow in the Holleran Center for Community Action and Public Policy (2011-2013). She has served in a number of administrative capacities at the College including Special Adviser to the President for Institutional Equity and Diversity (2004-2005) and faculty representative on the Strategic Planning Committee (2003-2004). In 2004 she was also appointed to chair the committee to develop the Center for Comparative Study of Race and Ethnicity (CCSRE) at the College, which was subsequently established in 2005.

Among her many honors and awards, Dr. Grande was named as a "founding scholar" to The Paulo and Nita Freire International Project for Critical Pedagogy at McGill University, CA. As part of this project she was invited to attend an international meeting of Freire-ian scholars in Baeza, Spain (2009).

Key note speaker for the conference

Sandy Grande will be signing her book (Red Pedagogy)- June 11th 2013, during the reception at Cankdeska Cikana Community College

Cynthia Lindquist, Ph.D.

President

Cankdeska
Cikana
Community
College,
Spirit Lake
Dakota Nation

Dr. Lindquist earned her bachelor's degree in Indian Studies and English at the University of North Dakota and a master's degree in public administration (Indian health systems emphasis) at the University of South Dakota. As a Bush Foundation Leadership Fellow, she earned a doctorate in educational leadership at the University of North Dakota.

Dr. Lindquist began responsibilities as President of Cankdeska Cikana (Little Hoop) Community College in 2003, which serves the Spirit Lake Dakota community and is her home reservation. Dr. Lindquist is an adjunct faculty member in Community Medicine & Rural Health at the UND School of Medicine & Health Sciences. She is a founding member of the National Indian Women's Health Resource Center, a nonprofit advocacy organization. Dr. Lindquist served as member of the Council of Public Representatives (COPR), an advisory council to the director of the National Institutes of Health (NIH), and is a former executive director of the North Dakota Indian Affairs Commission.

Key note speaker for the conference

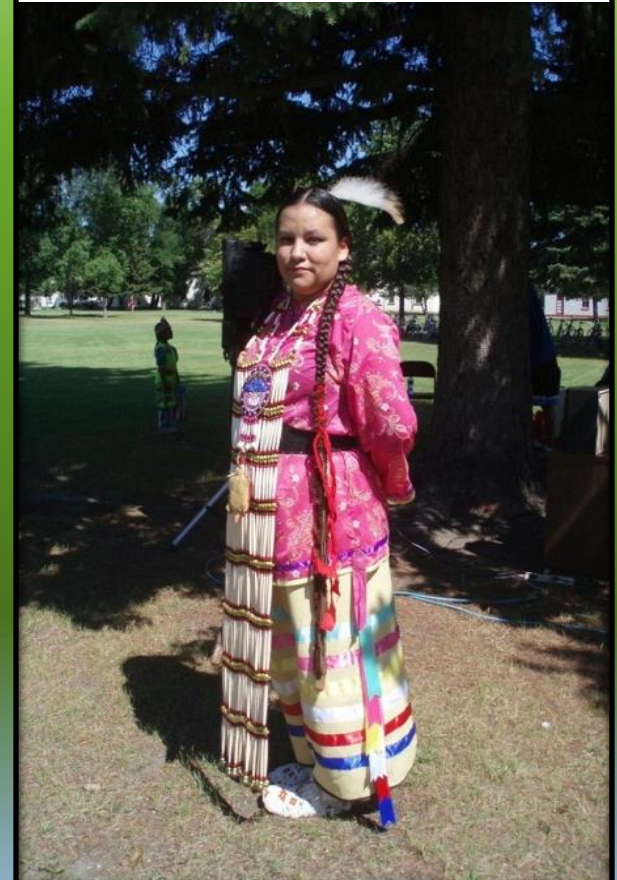

Funded by The University Partnership
Research Grant for Health Professional
Opportunity Grant, # 90PH0019,
Office of Planning, Research, and Evaluation, Administration for Children and Families.

CANKDESKA CIKANA
COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Spirit Lake Dakota Nation

Past, Present and Future of American Indian Nurses in North Dakota

June 11 - 12, 2013

Spirit Lake Casino & Resort
Fort Totten, North Dakota &
Cankdeska Cikana Community College
Spirit Lake Dakota Nation

The purpose of this conference is to develop strategies for the recruitment and retention of American Indian students into the nursing profession in North Dakota.

Conference Objectives

- Explore the historical context of American Indian nurses enrolled in nursing programs.
- Discuss characteristics and learning needs of American Indian students.
- Describe the impact of changing health care trends on American Indian nurses
- Discuss strategies for integrating and enhancing diversity in nursing education and practice.
- Discuss indigenous theory and pedagogy related to American Indian nursing.
- Facilitate networking opportunities for American Indian students, nurse educators, and employers.
- Participate in small group discussions on issues of American Indian nursing education.

Conference Information

- When: Tuesday June 11 and Wednesday June 12, 2013
- Where: Spirit Lake Casino & Resort, Fort Totten, ND and Tuesday's dinner and entertainment at Cankdeska Cikana Community College
- For more information: Please visit – www.ndsu.edu/aicup
- Questions can be directed to Dr. Loretta Heuer at Loretta.heuer@ndsu.edu or 701-231-8205 / 701-238-8484.

Registration Information

- Registration: There is no cost for this conference for participants but preregistration is recommended by May 29, 2013.
- Online registration form is available at - www.ndsu.edu/aicup

The registration form can be:
 - Emailed to - Loretta.heuer@ndsu.edu
 - Mailed to : Loretta Heuer, PhD, RN, FAAN, North Dakota State University , Department of Nursing , Dept 2670, PO Box 6050 / Fargo ND 58108-6050, or
 - Fax to: 701.231.6257.
- Registration cancellation : If you need to cancel your registration, please contact Dr. Loretta Heuer - Loretta.heuer@ndsu.edu or 701-231-8205 (Work Phone) or 701-238-8484 (Cell Phone).

Hotel Reservations

- A block of rooms under the NDSU Department of Nursing have been reserved at the Spirit Lake Casino & Resort (701-766-4888 or 800-946-8238) and at Super 8 (701-662- 8656) Devils Lake, ND
- Additional rooms may be available in Devils Lake, ND - Holiday Inn Express (701- 665-3200 or 888-465-4329) , Great American Inn and Suites (701-662-4001) and Fort Totten Trail Historic Inn (701-766-4874)

Conference Schedule Tuesday, June 11 , 2013

- Blessing
- Welcome
- Key Note Speaker – Dr. Cynthia Lindquist
- Grant Updates – Health Professional Opportunities Grant (HPOG) and Next Steps Program
- Elder Nurses' Panel Presentation
- Nursing Student Panel
- Video Premier - The American Indian Nurse
- Small Group Discussion
- Blessing /Dinner/Entertainment at Cankdeska Cikana Community College

Conference Schedule Wednesday, June 12 , 2013

- Key-Note Speaker – Dr. Sandy Grande
- Presentation – Dr. Denise M. Korniewicz
- Determining Strategies to Recruit and Retain American Indians in Nursing Through the Use of Nominal Group Technique
- American Indian Nursing Demographics Mapping Project Presentation
- Employer Panel
- Youth Education and Employment Survey Results
- Closing Blessing
- Evaluations
- Adjournment

Additional Information

Full conference schedule can be found – www.ndsu.edu/aicup