

Sara Sunderlin – Profile

Senior Lecturer in Apparel, Retail Merchandising and Design

Education

- Master of Science, North Dakota State University, May 2001 – Department of Apparel, Textiles and Interior Design with an emphasis in business and marketing
- Bachelor of Science, North Dakota State University, May 1993 – Department of Apparel, Textiles and Interior Design with a minor in Business Administration

Courses Taught

- ADHM 101 — Beginning Apparel Construction
- ADHM 181 — Aesthetic Analysis of Apparel Products
- ADHM 272 — Product Development
- ADHM 366 — Textiles Lecture
- ADHM 367 — Textile Laboratory
- ADHM 410 — Dress in World Cultures

Teaching Experience

- Senior Lecturer in Apparel, Retail Management and Design, North Dakota State University, 2006 – present
- Lecturer in Apparel, Retail Management and Design, North Dakota State University, 2001 - 2005

Research and Scholarship (Selected)

- Manikowske, L. & Sunderlin, S.R. (2012). The Salvation Army Store Project: Professionals Who Make a Difference. Delta Kappa Gamma Bulletin: International Journal for Professional Educators, 78(3), 34-37.
- Manikowske, L. & Sunderlin, S.R. (2012). Be Safe in the Sun. Eat Smart. Play Hard Together. NDSU Extension Service, 2012 – 2013, 38 – 39.
- Manikowske, L. & Sunderlin, S.R. (2011) Clothing and Connections: A Partnership for Service Learning. Poster Presentation for International Textile and Apparel Association Annual Conference, Philadelphia, PA.
- Manikowske, L. & Sunderlin, S.R. (2011) The Salvation Army Store Project: Students Make a Difference. Poster Presentation for International Textile and Apparel Association Annual Conference, Philadelphia, PA.

Professional Memberships and Associations

- International Textile and Apparel Association (ITAA) member
- American Association of Textile Chemists and Colorists (AATCC) member