North Dakota State University

Jaga, Shika Aani Yuvarniki Vicha

North Dakota State University offers many opportunities for undergraduate, graduate, Ph.D. programs. The university consists of 1,400 students, with 110 international students from 80 countries. North Dakota State University has 100 undergraduate programs, 59 master's programs, and 44 Ph.D. programs. North Dakota State University is located in Fargo, North Dakota, United States. The city is a center for tourism, art, culture, and entertainment, with a large and diverse population.

Fargo is located in the western part of the United States, in the state of North Dakota. The city is a center for tourism, art, culture, and entertainment, with a large and diverse population.

The university is part of the North Dakota State University system, which includes the following campuses:

- North Dakota State University
- North Dakota State Polytechnic University
- North Dakota State College of Science
- North Dakota State University-Moorhead
- North Dakota State University-Grand Forks
- North Dakota State University-Casselton
- North Dakota State University-Drayton
- North Dakota State University-Williston
- North Dakota State University-Devil's Lake
- North Dakota State University-Manor