2017 COUNSELING PROGRAM/ STUDENT OUTCOMES

Counselor Education program

Number of program graduates from the past year (2016-17)

- 18 master’s degree graduates (11 graduates in the Clinical Mental Health program and 7 graduates in the School Counseling program)
- 2 Ph.D. graduates

Completion rate

Regarding the completion rate of the master’s degree students who graduated in 2017, 100% of the students completed their program within the expected time period.

Regarding the completion rate of the Ph.D. students who graduated in 2017, the average completion rate was 3.5 years.

Job placement rate

Regarding the 2017 master’s degree graduates from the school counseling program, 100% of the graduates are employed in school counseling positions.

Regarding the 2017 master’s degree graduates from the clinical mental health program, 10 out of 10 graduates (100%) who responded to graduation updates obtained counseling positions. Job placement information from one (1) student was not provided.

Regarding the two (2) 2017 Counselor Education and Supervision doctoral graduates, one (1) Ph.D. graduate has full-time employment and one (1) graduate is in the process of obtaining employment due to a family relocation.

Licensure or certification examination pass rate

During the 2016-2017 academic year, NDSU Counselor Education students had a 100% pass rate on the NCE. School counseling program graduates who seek to become credentialed in North Dakota are not required to pass the NCE.

During the 2016-17 academic year, 100% of NDSU Counselor Education students passed the CPCE. NDSU’s mean scores in all eight (8) content areas was above the national mean score. Ten (10) out of eighteen (18) students had a total mean score that was one (1) standard deviation above the national mean total score.