

NDSU Celebrates National Day on Writing

NDSU is participating in the National Day on Writing, October 20, 2010. The National Day on Writing is an annual event organized by the National Council of teachers of English: www.ncte.org/dayonwriting. The celebration at NDSU includes the following events:

The Graduate School will host a writing retreat for graduate students and faculty. This event will be held in the Reimers Room in the Alumni Center from 9am-4pm. Participants will experience undisturbed writing time in the company of fellow writers, and specialists in writing from the Graduate School and the Center for Writers will be on hand to provide encouragement and support. Attendees are welcome to spend the entire day, a few hours, or a few minutes on current writing projects. Snacks will be provided. For more information, please contact Karen Peirce, Graduate Writing Coordinator: karen.peirce@ndsu.edu.

The Center for Writers will staff a table in the Memorial Union from 9am-4pm. Students will be able to learn about the services offered by the Center, to receive on-the-spot writing assistance, and to have fun with word games and writing activities. For more information, please contact Mary Pull, Director of the Center for Writers: mary.pull@ndsu.edu.
