Ulteig tasked us with researching EV's and EV chargers to summarize locals. This data could be useful to pass on to prospective clients for the EV charging industry.

According to our data, a majority of EVs and charging stations are located along both coasts, as well as urban areas. Improvements are needed in more rural areas, like the Mountain/Midwest region(s).