- The boundaries for zip code 58710 changed slightly between 1990 and 2000 (see boundary maps). Therefore, an assessment of change between 1990 and 2000 using these data is not appropriate.
- In 1990, zip code 58710 encompassed a small section of the far southeastern corner of McHenry County and the north central section of Sheridan County with 477 residents. A boundary change in 2000 expanded the area to include the far southwestern corner of Pierce County. The new area had 585 residents in 2000.
- McHenry County experienced a decline in population between 1990 and 2000. Population projections for McHenry County indicate that population declines are likely to continue over the next two decades.
- In 2000, 22 percent of residents in zip code 58710 were younger than 20 years of age and 29 percent were ages 65 and older. This age profile is slightly different from McHenry County in which youth comprised 26 percent of the population and elderly comprised 22 percent. Population projections for McHenry County indicate a rapidly growing elderly population will likely occur over the next two decades.
- In 2000, nearly all residents in both zip code 58710 and McHenry County were white.
