NORTH DAKOTA STATE UNIVERSITY

NONDISCRIMINATION AND REAFFIRMATION STATEMENT
NORTH DAKOTA STATE UNIVERSITY
May, 2014 Reaffirmation

North Dakota State University (NDSU) is committed to nondiscrimination and affirmative action, a responsibility the university accepts willingly because it is the right and just thing to do. Because an educational institution exposes its students to a multitude of ideas that strongly influence their future development, it is an area of our society where removing barriers is critical. We are committed to the concepts of inclusion and participation.

This commitment includes developing a safe and supportive climate for all members of the NDSU community including, but not limited to, classrooms, laboratories, offices, residence halls, and athletic venues. NDSU recognizes that a nondiscriminatory environment complements a commitment to academic inquiry and intellectual and personal growth. Reasonable accommodation(s) will be made to facilitate the participation of persons with disabilities in all such activities consistent with applicable federal and state laws, orders and policies. It applies to all university-sponsored programs and activities as well as those that are conducted in cooperation with the university.

NDSU’s commitment to nondiscrimination and affirmative action is of the highest priority and is to be adhered to as such. NDSU herein recommit itself to comply with all federal and state laws, regulations, and orders, including the policies of the North Dakota State Board of Higher Education.

NDSU has designated the Vice President for Equity, Diversity and Global Outreach overall non-discrimination program responsibility. Questions regarding complaints and/or compliance with affirmative action or equal opportunity should be directed to the Vice President for Equity, Diversity and Global Outreach, 205 Old Main, (701)231-7708.
