Earn your North Dakota Superintendent’s Credential at NDSU

Do you have a Master’s degree in an educational field and are interested in furthering your education to obtain a North Dakota Superintendent’s credential? You can do it in two semesters at North Dakota State University! In the upcoming 2021 summer and fall semesters the NDSU’s Educational Leadership Program will be offering classes that meet the coursework requirements in North Dakota Administrative Rule 67-11-07-05 for obtaining the North Dakota Superintendent’s Credential. Summer semester will consist of six credits of course work. You have the option to attend in person or via Zoom on the scheduled date and time. However, ED 715 The Superintendency is only offered via Zoom. Fall semester will consist of a two credit, field-based practicum. *NDSU policy requires a minimum of 10 participants enrolled in order to offer the courses.

To enroll:

Step 1: Complete the online Graduate Non-degree application at the link below: https://www.ndsu.edu/gradschool/apply/non_degree

Step 2: Once you have been admitted as a non-degree student you will be able to register for the classes listed above through Campus Connection. Information on how to access the Campus Connection can be found at https://www.ndsu.edu/onestop/connect/
