MINOR IN EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT: VULNERABILITY AND CAPACITY BUILDING

6 CLASSES • 18 CREDITS

People around the world are increasingly affected by disasters—natural and man-made. The Vulnerability and Capacity Building minor focuses on developing knowledge about human suffering caused by these events and how that can be reduced. The curriculum covers how the most vulnerable members of society, such as children, the elderly and the poor, are affected and how nonprofits, schools, hospitals and other organizations help people in the aftermath. NDSU offers the only Emergency Management minor and Vulnerability and Capacity Building concentration in the region.
