

MA in English: Foreign Language Requirement

MA Requirement

Students need to demonstrate intermediate competency (200-level, 4th semester) in one foreign language by the time the program of study is completed.

Intermediate competency may be demonstrated by a) providing an official transcript that certifies that secondary or higher education was completed in a language other than English; b) successfully completing a second-semester, second year (or higher level) college foreign language course, with a grade of C or above; or c) passing the final exam for a second-year (or higher level) foreign language course with a grade of C or above (test may be retaken, at discretion of the language instructor, after one month).
