SECTION 353
GRIEVANCES – FACULTY

SOURCE: SBHE Policy Manual, Section 612
NDSU President

1. This Policy is intended to provide a fair, internal process for resolving certain employment-related disputes that arise between faculty or academic staff members and administrators. Each institution shall establish procedures to attempt mediation or resolution of faculty grievances.

2. “Grievance” means an allegation of a violation by an NDSU administrator of a specific Board or institutional policy, procedure or practice pertaining to the employment relationship. This includes the terms of the grievant's employment contract. Discretionary actions, such as salary adjustments, increases and performance evaluations, may not be grieved, except to determine: (a) whether the discretionary action was made in accordance with relevant Board or institutional policies, practices, procedures or criteria; and (b) whether the action constitutes a clear abuse of discretion.

   “Grievance” does not include complaints involving any matters covered under NDSU policies 350.1-350.5 and 352 or equal opportunity grievances which are governed by NDSU Policy 150. SBHE Policy, Section 605.3 or 605.4 are not grievances under this policy. Grievances cannot be filed against written SBHE or NDSU Board and institutional policies, per se. Decisions on matters related to tenure and promotion may be appealed under NDSU policy 350.1-350.5 and 352. Equal opportunity grievances are governed by NDSU Policy 156.

3. This policy applies only to faculty as defined in NDSU Policy 350.1. SBHE Policy, Section 605.1 of these policies. It does not apply to classified staff or to administrators or coaches.

4. The faculty governance structure at each institution shall by policy define the procedures for filing a grievance in accordance with SBHE Policy, Section 305.1 of these policies. Actions or conditions subject to grievances are those which apply personally to the grievant and are administrative decisions affecting terms and conditions of employment, such as salary adjustments, development leave, assignments/duties, periodic reviews and working environment. Grievance does not include matters related to tenure or promotion.

4.1 Grievant. Grievant may only initiate the grievance process described in this policy after communicating with the administrator whose decision is the subject of the grievance (the “respondent”) in attempting a good-faith attempt to resolve the matter, with the person whose decision is the subject of the grievance (the “respondent”), grievant may only initiate the grievance process after attempting a good-faith communication with the

(c) The grievant shall select one member from the pool and the person against whom the grievance is brought shall select the other member from the pool. The Committee shall judge any allegation of bias or conflict of interest. (d) 5.1.3 Emeritus professors are eligible for memberships on the SRC.

(e) Faculty holding administrative appointments are not eligible for membership on the SRC. “Administrative appointment” includes appointments as President, Vice President, Dean, Associate or Assistant Dean, Department Chair or Head, or Associate or Assistant Department Chair or Head of an Academic Unit.

5.2 In the event of a dispute as to whether an action is a matter related to tenure or promotion or is subject to grievance, the university or faculty member subject to the action request an interpretation from the Standing Committee on Faculty Rights by filing a written request for an opinion. The Committee, after reviewing the matter and considering written argument from either party, shall issue its opinion within thirty calendar days of the filing of the request for an opinion.

14.6 The final decision will be made by the Provost so long as the grievance is not against the Provost or any individual who reports directly to the Provost. In those situations, the President shall make the final decision. The Provost (or when applicable, the President) shall, within thirty days of receipt of the recommendation, provide written notice of her/his decision to the grievant, the respondent, and to the administrator who is the respondent’s immediate supervisor of his/her decision concerning the grievance after consideration of the Special Review Committee’s recommendation. That decision shall be final.

3. STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES AND RECOURSE

Students who anticipate excusable absences shall notify the faculty member as soon as possible, preferably by the third week of class, but no later than one week before the absence. In the case of unanticipated excusable events, the student needs to contact the instructor as soon as possible. Students have the responsibility to visit with the instructor if exams or assignments are scheduled during times where absences are required.

Students who feel that they are being discriminated against through class policies may file a grievance or complaint through the Provost’s Office by following directions at https://www.ndsu.edu/provost/academics/student_grievances/.

4. NONDISCRIMINATORY COURSE ATTENDANCE POLICIES

Course attendance policies may not have the effect (intentional or unintentional) of illegally discriminating on the basis of age, color, gender expression/identity, genetic information, marital status, national origin, physical or mental disability, pregnancy, public assistance status, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or status as a U.S. veteran. Faculty should always be prepared to articulate a rational justification for any classroom policy he or she imposes.

   a. Religious Accommodations
Religious observances may require absence from a class session and other required class activities. A student who is to be excused from class for a religious observance is not required to provide a second party certification of the reason for the absence.

b. Pregnant Students

In accordance with Title IX and Guidance from Department of Education Office of Civil Rights, absences due to pregnancy or related conditions, including recovery from childbirth, shall be excused for as long as the student’s doctor deems the absences medically necessary. When the student returns to class the student must be provided the opportunity to make up any work missed. Alternatives include allowing the student to take an incomplete and complete the course at a later date, or retaking the course or taking an online course. Further, recognizing the need for flexibility when childcare responsibilities impact a student, faculty are encouraged to accommodate students with childcare responsibilities. (This requirement does not include “paternity leave” unless the mother’s doctor believes that it is medically necessary for the father to be excused.)

5. UNIVERSITY SANCTIONED EVENTS

North Dakota State University values and supports the required participation of students in university-sanctioned activities. A university sanctioned event or activity shall be one in which a student represents the university to external constituencies in academic or extra-curricular activities. These include but are not limited to mandatory participation as a student athlete in NCAA-sanctioned competition, student government congresses, music competitions, academic meetings, and conferences.

6. OTHER EXCUSABLE ABSENCES

a. Legally mandated absences such as jury duty or court subpoena.

b. Absences due to military duty or veteran status, including service related medical appointments where failure to appear might result in a loss of benefits.

c. Illness or injury to the student; death, injury or serious illness of an immediate family member or dependent family member. Students and faculty should note that the NDSU Student Health Service does not provide students with excuses for class absences or tardiness due to illness or injury.

1. GENERAL PHILOSOPHY

a. Attendance in classes is expected. Only the course instructor can excuse a student from course responsibilities. (The term course includes class, laboratory, field trips, group exercises, or other activities.)

b. If class attendance is a component of the course grade, the course instructor must clearly communicate this to the class in writing in the syllabus.

2. FACULTY RESPONSIBILITY

a. The course instructor must clearly inform students on the first day of class and in writing in the syllabus (1) of their policy regarding class absence (including if supporting documentation is required), and (2) policy for making up missed assignments. It is recognized that sometimes an assignment is impossible to make up.
b. The course instructor must exercise a fair and consistent standard for resolving questions of missed assignments, the type, extent, manner, and time frame of the make-up assignments.

3. STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

a. Students are responsible for informing course instructors of absences. If absences are known (e.g., university sanctioned activity, such as student government, judging, clubs, athletic competition, fine arts performances), course instructors shall be informed with written notification as far in advance as possible (preferably a two-week notice). Where advance notification is not possible (e.g., illness, family emergency), students should contact their course instructor as soon as possible about the absence. Veterans and student servicemembers with special circumstances or who are activated, to include State Active Duty, are encouraged to notify the instructor as soon as possible, provide Activation Orders if possible, and inform the NDSU Office of Military and Veterans Services to facilitate a smooth exit from and successful re-entry to the University.

b. When a student misses class for any reason, the student is responsible for contacting the instructor to make arrangements to follow the course instructor's policy in making up any missed assignments, if permitted.

Student drivers must comply with the NDSU student travel procedures and ND SBHE Policy 512.

   This policy pertains to student travel within the United States. For information about traveling overseas (Study Abroad), contact the Office of International Programs, and more specifically, the Study Abroad site.

2. SCOPE: The opportunity to represent North Dakota State University throughout the state, the nation, and the world is one of the many benefits of being a member of the NDSU student body. This policy applies to the travel of enrolled undergraduate or graduate students to attend activities or events that are consistent with the North Dakota State Board of Higher Education (SBHE) Policy 512, applicable state law, and state fleet rules which are:

   a. organized or sponsored by the University; or

   b. funded by the University or the NDSU Student Government; or

   c. undertaken using a vehicle owned or leased by the University.

   The types of activities and events covered by this policy include course related field trips, and meetings of academic organizations or governance entities where a student is officially representing the University.

   The policy does not apply to travel undertaken by individual students solely for personal interests and benefits (including, but not limited to, out of town athletic events, or to engage in student-teaching, internships, practicum or clinical experiences, observations or research, unless the research is organized by a member of the faculty).

   Questions about whether or not this policy applies to a particular type of student travel may be directed to the Office of Student Life.
