

NDSU UND faculty speed networking event scheduled

The NDSU Advance FORWARD program and the Women in Research program is scheduled to host a speed networking reception for all NDSU and University of North Dakota faculty on Friday, Oct. 26, from 3:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. at NDSU's Memorial Union Arikara room. The event aims to bring faculty from NDSU and UND together to accelerate research collaboration and collegial contacts.

To register, visit FORWARD's website at www.ndsu.edu/forward and click on the NDSU/UND Speed Networking event.

For more information about the event, contact Ann Burnett at ann.burnett@ndsu.edu or Kara Gravley-Stack at kara.gravley-stack@ndsu.edu.
