Who We Are

The Graduate Student Council (GSC) is the representative voice of graduate students from all academic disciplines at North Dakota State University. The GSC works together with academic and non-academic employees of NDSU toward improving and maintaining graduate students’ academic and non-academic experiences at NDSU.

What We Offer

Presentation and Poster Awards

The GSC provides awards for excellent posters and presentations at our annual Research Symposium.

Professional Development

The GSC hosts professional development workshops and seminars to promote graduate students’ education beyond their own disciplines.

Networking Opportunities

The GSC coordinates events that provide graduate students with opportunities to share their research with other graduate students, faculty, and state legislators.

Recognition of Academic Achievements

Every semester, the GSC recognizes graduate student achievements through a university-wide newsletter.

What You Can Do

You can get involved with the Graduate Student Council by:

• Joining a GSC committee
• Attending GSC meetings
• Taking advantage of GSC programs

GSC Committees

Strategic Planning Committee
Reviews and updates all Graduate Student Council documentation, including Constitution, Transition Document and Strategic Plan.
Co-Chairs: Lindsey Leitner & Kenechukwu Ezekwem

Governance and Finance Committee
Supports the budgetary planning and financial infrastructure of the GSC and its committees.
Co-Chairs: Andrew Taylor & Logeeshan Velmanickam

Public Relations and Outreach Committee
Enhances communication among graduate students across the NDSU community through social and university media for the purposes of advertising, marketing, and promoting workshops and forums.
Co-Chairs: Amanda Savitt & Seseer Mou

Programming and Professional Development Committee
Develops programs and carries out events to help develop graduate students socially, educationally and professionally.
Co-Chairs: Karina Stott, Alex Cyusa, Priyanka Swami & Abdulaziz Alanazi
