

Phyllis Krecklau – Diploma 1960 Bismarck Hospital School of Nursing

Phyllis G. Krecklau, 76, Bismarck, died Oct. 25, 2015, at Missouri Slope Lutheran Care Center, Bismarck. Phyllis chose to have her body donated to the University of North Dakota School of Medicine. A memorial service will be held at a later date when she will be buried alongside her husband at the North Dakota Veterans Cemetery, Mandan.

Phyllis Geraldine Krecklau was born Oct. 19, 1939, at the Richardton Hospital, the daughter of John R. and Katherine (Magelky) Jurgens. She was raised on the family farm north of Taylor and graduated from Taylor High School in 1957. Phyllis went on to graduate from the Bismarck Hospital School of Nursing in 1960 and received her registered nurse license the same year. Phyllis married Gilbert George Krecklau in 1960.

Phyllis dedicated most of her life to being a nurse, mother and housewife. She enjoyed reading, music, singing, canvas quilting and visiting with friends.

She is survived by her son, Curtis and his wife, Lynell; her three grandsons, Taylor, Andrew and Aaron; her three brothers, Bruce Jurgens and his wife, Kathy, Lester Jurgens, and Richard Jurgens and his wife, Marcia; and one brother-in-law, Virgil Krecklau.

She was preceded in death her husband; her parents; and one baby sister.
