

NDSU | Professional Athletic Training Program

Expenses

A majority of costs for learning materials, course/lab supplies and equipment are covered through student tuition and fees. However, there are additional expenses that are the financial obligation of the students enrolled in the Master of Athletic Training Program at NDSU. A summary of expenses is listed below; this list neither exhaustive or inclusive of all student financial obligations.

Tuition and university mandatory student fees information is available through NDSU One Stop service center: <https://www.ndsu.edu/onestop/accounts/tuition/>

Additional Expenses (Required)

Fee Description	*Estimated Cost	Additional Information
Textbooks (dependent of course and semester)	$200-500/semester	All required textbooks are available through the NDSU Memorial Union Bookstore. https://www.ndsubookstore.com/home Students may purchase textbooks elsewhere.
Criminal Background Check	$49	Students are required to complete background package check through CastleBranch . Instructions will be provided upon enrollment in the program.
Liability Insurance	$68	Students are required to complete background package check through Proliability (Mercer) . Instructions will be provided upon enrollment in the program
Immunizations: TB Testing, Influenza Vaccine, Varicella titer or proof of vaccination	Cost dependent of individual health care coverage.	Available at NDSU Student Health Service or through primary care provider.
Apparel One polo shirt	$40-$200	Students are required to wear NDSU/Athletic Training apparel at all clinical sites. NDSU apparel can be purchased at the NDSU book Store and local retailers; Athletic Training apparel is available through the MATrg on-line store.

ID Badge	$5-$10	ID Badges are set up through the NDSU Card Center. ID Badge must be worn during all clinical education and experiences.
Transportation to clinical sites	Cost dependent on site location.	Students are responsible for transportation to all clinical sites on and off campus. MAT bus system may not be accessible for all sites and times.
BOC Exam	$360-$390 NATA members receive a discounted application fee	All students are required to successfully pass the BOC Exam to become a Certified Athletic Trainer (ATC)
Graduate Degree Processing Fee	$25	Graduation applications are due February 1

Additional Expenses (Optional)

Fee Description	*Estimated Cost	Additional Information
Hepatis B vaccination Series	Cost dependent of individual health care coverage.	Students are encouraged to complete the Hepatis B vaccination series due to potential risk of exposure as a health care provider. Available at NDSU Student Health Service or through primary care provider.
Travel (with teams or professional development)	Cost dependent on location and duration of event, transportation, lodging, meals and registration (if applicable)	Students with the opportunity to travel with an athletic team are responsible to discuss associated personal expenses with preceptor prior to leaving for the event. Students are encouraged to attend local, regional, and national conferences for professional development.
Apparel	$25-$200/year	Students are required to wear NDSU/Athletic Training apparel at all clinical sites. NDSU apparel can be purchased at the NDSU book Store and local retailers; Athletic Training apparel is available through the MATrg on-line store.
Certifications	$35-$200	Students may have the opportunity for additional certifications through certain courses (Graston Technique®, NR-EMT, Casting and Bracing: ROT, OBT) and responsible for associated fees.

NATA Membership	$80/year (new member) $119/year (renewing member)	NATA membership includes district (MAATA) and state (NDATA) memberships. Also allows to scholarship opportunities through respective associations.
Athletic Training Organization	$10/year	The Athletic Training Organization (ATO) is a student organization and provides funding for student activities and travel for professional development.
Commencement Attire	Cost dependent on purchase or renting	Students have the option of participating in NDSU commencement. Information regarding regalia is available through the NDSU Bookstore. https://www.ndsubookstore.com/graduation

Fees may change based on vendor or supplier. Students will be notified as timely as possible when changes in fees occur.*