Adjustment to U.S. Culture

• Culture Shock
  – What is it?
  – Stages
    • Honeymoon stage – excitement!
    • Negotiation stage – differences between old and new culture become more noticeable
    • Adjustment stage – one develops problem solving skills to cope in new culture with its differences
    • Mastery stage – participate fully and comfortably in the new/host culture

- Please give us time
- Please be patient
Remember

• We are committed to keeping our advising sessions confidential and we ask that you talk to us about immigration matters only in our office (not the hall, the union, parking lot, or the bathroom)

• We keep records and we cannot give you accurate (or the best) advice based on your needs outside of our office.
Why do we do these things?

• 2 advisors and 700 International students
• We need time to process paperwork
• We want to help you and serve you as best as possible!
Immigration Documents

• YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE FOLLOWING DOCUMENTS
  – Passport - must be kept valid
  – I-94 electronic record
  – I-20 - note expiration date & travel signature date
  – Visa – note expiration date for travel purposes

* If you have not already you may make copies of these documents and email them to ndsu.international@ndsu.edu.

Get Travel History

Effective April 28, 2013, DHS began automating the admission process. An alien lawfully admitted or paroled into the U.S. is no longer required to be in possession of a preprinted Form I-94. A record of admission printed from the CBP website constitutes a lawful record of admission. See 8 CFR § 1.4(d).

If an employer, local, state or federal agency requests admission information, present your admission (I-94) number along with any additional required documents requested by that employer or agency.

Note: For security reasons, we recommend that you close your browser after you have finished retrieving your I-94 number.

For inquiries or questions regarding your I-94, please click here.
Maintaining Status

• Undergraduates
  – Must register for a minimum of 12 credits each semester and maintain those 12 credits. You cannot drop below 12 credits in the middle of a semester (for example if you are failing a course)

• Graduate Students
  – Must register for a minimum of 9 credits each semester
  – With assistantship, minimum of 6 credits
  – Graduate students must also maintain their credit load throughout the semester. Dropping a class because of an undesirable grade is not acceptable.

• Online Classes
  – Only one online course per semester can count towards your full-time status requirements.
Maintaining Status

• Do not work off-campus
• Keep all immigration documents
• Maintain full-time student status
• Keep documents valid
Employment

• On-campus work
  – 20 hours per week during academic year
  – 40 hours per week during summer, winter and spring breaks only
    (not any other holidays or breaks)

• Off-campus work
  – STRICTLY PROHIBITED –
    • For example, It is not legal to work at BioLife, McDonalds, or other stores/business that are not on-campus

• Practical Training
  – Employment directly related to your major program of study
  – Prior authorization required
  – Eligible to apply after having been in F-1 status at NDSU for two academic terms (fall and spring sessions)
Employment During Official University Breaks

• Winter break, spring break and summer
  – These breaks are considered official university breaks where it is allowable to work more than 20 hours per week (maximum 40 hours).

• IMPORTANT – if you are working on-campus during a break, 40 hours is the maximum number of hours you can work. If you are working for two or more on-campus departments, you will need to make sure you are not working over the 40 hour maximum allowance. For example, if you are working 20 hours at the ITS Help Desk, you are only allowed to work 20 hours for Dining Services.

NDSU
A Special Note about On-Campus Employment

• A work week is considered as Sunday at 12:00 a.m. to Saturday at 11:59 p.m. Please keep this in mind when your hours are scheduled.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Sunday</th>
<th>Monday</th>
<th>Tuesday</th>
<th>Wednesday</th>
<th>Thursday</th>
<th>Friday</th>
<th>Saturday</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>12:00am.........</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>............11:59pm</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Example: This Sunday, January 6th. How many hours per week is allowed?

• It is very important to only work 20 hours or less per week during the academic year.

• Working more than 20 hours per week during the academic year (except winter and spring break) will result in termination of your F-1 or J-1 record resulting in your required departure from the United States.

➔Important: A note about working 2 jobs on campus.
A Special Note about On-Campus Employment (cont.)

• What is the process?
  – HR/Payroll office notifies you and your department. Department given 48 hours to respond and clarify.
  – Sometimes, the discrepancy in hours was an error and this is resolved before we are notified.
  – Please wait to contact us only in the event that a violation did occur. Contacting us too soon will complicate your situation.

• How are we notified?
  – If a violation occurs, we are notified by the NDSU Human Resources and Payroll Office by email.
  – At that time, you will be contacted by us and asked to meet with your international student advisor about your options.
Documents to bring to NDSU Human Resources & Payroll

- Unexpired Foreign Passport
- Most current Form I-94 (printout)
- Work authorization Document
- Form I-20
Practical Training Employment

- Eligible to apply after 2 semesters in F-1 status in your program at NDSU (must apply through ISSAS)
- Curricular Practical Training (CPT) – internship, practicum, or co-op position directly related to your major program of study
- Optional Practical Training (OPT) – employment directly related to your major program of study
  - Please note that all practical training requires specific authorization prior to beginning employment. Working without authorization will jeopardize your F-1 status.
  - Please see our website at: https://www.ndsu.edu/international/immigration/for_f_1_students/ for more information. Also, we encourage you to make an appointment with your advisor if you have questions about the process.
Dependent Information

- Must show additional funding to support family member(s)
- Please visit with an international student advisor about the complete paperwork process
- F-2 dependents are NOT able to work under any circumstances but may study part-time
SEVIS Regulations

- All changes are reported in SEVIS
  - Major or minor changes
- Students MUST report a change of address to the ISSAS Office within 10 days
  - Each time you move (even to a new location on-campus)
  - Address during the summer break
- Plan ahead if you need a new I-20. Please allow one week for document processing.
