

Asian Pacific American

HERITAGE MONTH • 2012

Monday, April 23

Film: "Pidgin: The Voice of Hawai'i" (2009)

Noon-1 p.m., Century Theater, Memorial Union

Pidgin, a fusion language originated by immigrant workers on sugar plantations, still captures the spirit of multi-ethnic Hawai'i. The film examines discrimination in public education through the 1920s-1950s English Standard Schools and the legacy of shame they left behind, the rebirth of Native Hawaiian identity in the 1970s, and the current controversial revitalization of Pidgin across the state.

Monday, April 23

The Original Pakistan, by a Proud Pakistani!

Tayyaba Mohsin, student presenter
6-7 p.m., Equity and Diversity Center

Monday, April 23

Tuesday, April 24 and
Wednesday, April 25

1,000 Wishes for Japan

1-4 p.m., Memorial Union Contact Table
Learn to make an origami crane, a symbol of luck and peace. Help send 1,000 cranes to a shelter in Fukushima, as a sign of care for their nation's continued healing from the 2011 tsunami.

Wednesday, April 25

Movie: "The Last Samurai"

7 p.m., Century Theater, Memorial Union
Co-sponsored by Campus Attractions.

Thursday, April 26

Asian Culture Fair

2-4 p.m., Room of Nations, Memorial Union
Visit interactive cultural booths that offer food sampling, henna body art, cultural dress and language activities.

Haiku contest!

Visit NDSU Equity and Diversity Center on Facebook.

Asian Pacific American Heritage Month is sponsored by the Division of Equity, Diversity and Global Outreach.

North Dakota State University does not discriminate on the basis of age, color, disability, gender expression/identity, genetic information, marital status, national origin, public assistance status, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation or status as a U.S. veteran. Direct inquiries to the Vice President for Equity, Diversity and Global Outreach, 205 Old Main, (701) 231-7708.

To request accommodations, email ndsu.edcenter@ndsu.edu at least one week prior to the event.