

North Dakota State University presents:

the greens

THE GREENS IS A 20-MINUTE PERSONAL JOURNEY DOCUMENTARY ABOUT WHAT HAPPENS WHEN A WHITE COLLEGE KID SITS DOWN IN A BLACK BARBER'S CHAIR. THEY JOURNEY THROUGH TIME, BACK INTO THE CONTENTIOUS MEMORY OF ONE OF CHICAGO'S 'MOST NOTORIOUS' HOUSING PROJECTS, CABRINI-GREEN, WHERE THEY CONFRONT THEIR DEEPEST ASSUMPTIONS ABOUT THE NEIGHBOURHOOD, ITS RESIDENTS, VIOLENCE AND THE POSSIBILITY OF FINDING COMMON GROUND.

TUESDAY, MARCH 10TH
12:30PM - 1:30PM
CENTURY THEATER
NDSU MEMORIAL UNION

"You can't take a gun, put it to my head and say, 'This is a stick up, give me your memories' ...you can't take that from us"

-L.C.Harris, Jr. aka Batman

NDSU EQUITY AND DIVERSITY CENTER

NDSU | MEMORIAL UNION

Discussants:

Sam Spitz: Writer, Director, and Co-Producer of The Greens
Teddy Williams: Co-Producer (Via Skype)

North Dakota State University does not discriminate on the basis of age, color, disability, gender expression/identity, genetic information, marital status, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation or status as a U.S. veteran. Direct inquiries to the Vice President for Equity, Diversity and Global Outreach, 102 Putnam Hall, (701)231-7708.