African Student Union to present 6th Annual Pan-African Night

The African Student Union (ASU) encourages all to attend NDSU's 6th Annual Pan-African night, a celebration of African Culture and tradition through music, dance and a diverse cultural program aimed at entertaining and enlightening. This free event is a family-friendly affair and all who are interested in the celebration of Africa's rich culture are invited.

Sunday, April 26, 4 pm to 6:30 pm in NDSU's Memorial Union Ballroom.

Career Closet

A new program at the NDSU Career Center which allows currently enrolled NDSU students to borrow professional attire to be used for interviews and other professional events. The entire closet can also be viewed here: <http://ndsucareercloset.weebly.com/>.

Student Community Organizer Position

Students who would be interested in a Student Community Organizer position with NDSU Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse Prevention Programs, beginning in Fall 2015, should contact nicklaus.redenius@ndsu.edu or 701-231-5131. This paid position provides an opportunity to work on initiatives to reduce high risk drinking at NDSU. Job responsibilities include:

- Helping facilitate discussions related to alcohol and other drug abuse prevention
- Presenting to a variety of groups, including faculty, staff and students
- Creating and planning alcohol-free programs and events
- Serving on the President's Council on Alcohol & Other Drugs
- Create materials for the Before One More campaign

There is more information available online at AOD Prevention website.

NDSU Transportation Scholarship

Five scholarships are available through the Upper Great Plains Transportation Institute, with funding from the Mountain-Plains Consortium (MPC). The scholarships are available to current NDSU juniors and seniors to be awarded for the 2015-2016 Academic Year. To be considered, students should apply by April 30, 2015. The application is online at <http://www.ndsu.edu/transportation/scholarship/>.
