Hispanic Heritage Month

Hispanic Heritage Month is taking place from September 15 through October 15, 2015. During this time, check the Union for posters with trivia questions that can be answered and brought to the Office of Multicultural Programs for prizes.

Have You Been to all 50 United States?

Daniel Seddiqui has!

And he worked in all of them. Don't miss out on an opportunity to learn valuable career tips from someone who has done it all, literally. He worked 50 jobs in all 50 states in just one year.

Hear how he did it at his talk, "50 Jobs, 50 States, 1 Year" on October 13th at 7pm in the Plains Room of the Memorial Union.

MU Art Gallery New Exhibit

Jim Falck's paintings capture and celebrate the excitement of encountering new places and people. His travels throughout Europe and Mexico exposed him to the beautiful landscape and vibrant cultures which gave him inspiration for his work. Jim sought life and shared it in his paintings. After retiring from his architectural career, he pursued his life's dream of becoming a professional artist. Over the last 25 years of his life he completed an impressive body of paintings that number in the thousands, the majority of which were donated to NDSU. You can visit the exhibit in the Memorial Union Art Gallery until November 18.

New Study Center

The Dr. Prem and Raj Jauhar study center has been expanded and relocated to the front of the Office of Multicultural Programs. If you are looking for a quiet study space or if you need to use a computer, stop by between 8 am-5 pm Monday through Friday to take full advantage of this great resource.

Translators Needed

The Institute of the Study of Cultural Diversity is hiring translators for the following languages: German, Swedish, Korean, French, Finish, Japanese, Portuguese, Chinese, Spanish, and Italian. Further details about qualifications are posted at the Office of Multicultural programs. For more information or to apply, email jade.monroe@ndsu.edu
