You have not had contact with your parent(s), they did not claim you on their most recent income tax return, and they have not provided you with any emotional or financial support (including health or auto insurance coverage) for an extended period of time.
- Abuse: Your health or safety was at risk due to living with your parent(s) in an environment that included physical, sexual, emotional, verbal or substance abuse.
- Incarceration: At least one parent is in prison as a result of their participation in illegal activities and you do not have contact with or receive any support from your other parent.
- Institutionalization: At least one parent is institutionalized and lacks the mental capacity to complete the FAFSA and you do not have contact with or receive any support from your other parent.
- Death: Your custodial parent is no longer living and you do not have contact with or receive any support from your other parent.
- Location Unknown: Your parents do not reside in the United States and cannot be contacted.
- Conflicting Beliefs or Practices: Your parents disowned or severed ties with you because your beliefs, practices or preferences differ from theirs in one or more of the following areas: Race, religion, education, health, gender, sexual orientation or cultural expectations.

SECTION D: Student Certification and Signature

I certify that the information provided on this form is true and complete to the best of my knowledge. I understand that that a dependency override in future years is not automatic and I will be required to complete an override renewal if my relationship with my parent(s) has not changed. I agree to notify NDSU Financial Aid and Scholarships if the relationship with my parent(s) is reestablished or they provide me with any financial support*. I understand that purposely giving false or misleading information may result in fines, penalties, and/or reduction or immediate repayment of any financial aid I received.

Student’s Signature ____________________________ Date ____/____/____

*Financial support includes, but is not limited to, giving you money, paying bills on your behalf, covering you on an insurance policy, etc.

After signing and dating this form, read Section E for information on what you can expect next.

SECTION E: Next Steps

If you have not already done so, complete the 2019-20 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at www.studentaid.gov (formerly www.fafsa.ed.gov). You may skip the sections asking for parent income and household information, but must complete all other sections. Be sure to enter NDSU’s school code of 002997 in question 103(a) and electronically sign the FAFSA using your FSA-ID credentials to ensure your application date is recorded.

If your dependency override is approved by NDSU, your FAFSA will be pushed through as an independent student. An expected family contribution (EFC) will be calculated based solely on your income and assets and the FAFSA will be electronically sent to NDSU. A financial aid award will be generated (usually within 2 weeks of receiving your pushed FAFSA, starting mid-March for new students and mid-May for returning students), and you’ll receive an email communication directing you to Campus Connection to accept or decline your financial aid award.

If your dependency override request is denied by NDSU, you’ll be required to correct your FAFSA and include your parents’ financial information and signatures if you wish to be awarded state or federal financial aid.
