Policy Manual

SECTION 334.1 INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL FOR STUDENTS

SOURCE: NDSU President

1. POLICY STATEMENT- North Dakota State University (NDSU) promotes the health, safety, and security of all students while traveling outside the United States for University-related purposes. The University, in consultation with the program leader or appropriate administrator, reserves the right to cancel any international activity at any time due to health, safety, or other concerns. Any planned or anticipated travel to a country or region under a travel warning or travel alert as designated by the U.S. Department of State is subject to review and approval and modifications or cancellations by appropriate administrators and the Office of International Student and Study Abroad Services. Current travel conditions can be reviewed on the U.S. Department of State website at: <http://travel.state.gov>.
2. SCOPE - This policy applies to student travel outside of the United States for University-related purposes. Examples of such travel, which may include, but is not limited to, are to study; to perform research; to participate in internships; to perform service; to present work at conferences; to teach; to perform or participate in athletic competitions. For purposes of this policy, outside of the United States refers to locations not included in the fifty states and District of Columbia (Washington, D.C.).
 - 2.1 Student travel that falls under this policy may be sponsored by an academic department, university unit, or Congress of Student Organization (CSO) recognized student organization. This policy applies to NDSU-affiliated student travel with or without university funding.
 - 2.2 Questions about whether or not this policy applies to a particular type of student travel may be directed to the Office of International Student and Study Abroad Services.
3. DEFINITIONS
 - a. An organized event is one that is initiated, planned, or arranged by a member of the University's faculty or staff, or by the members of a recognized student organization, and is approved by an appropriate administrator.
 - b. A sponsored event or activity is one that the University endorses by supporting it financially, or by sending students to participate in it as official representatives of the University.
 - c. An enrolled student is one who has been admitted to and is attending classes at the University.
 - d. An appropriate administrator, for the purpose of student travel, is the President, Provost, dean, department chair, or head of an administrative unit, or their delegate.
 - e. A program leader is the faculty or staff responsible for managing or coordinating all aspects of group student travel in coordination with the Office of International Student and Study Abroad Services.

- f. A student program leader is the individual responsible for managing all aspects of the student travel, including participation in the program. The program leader serves as a liaison between the group and the University. Student program leaders must be in good standing (academic and conduct) with NDSU.

4. TRAVEL AUTHORIZATION - International travel governed by this policy must be authorized in advance. In order for students to obtain travel authorization, they must complete the appropriate process by the corresponding deadlines that occur each semester. If the travel experience does not have a set application process, the required process should be completed according to the general study abroad deadlines of March 1 and October 1, respectively, or on a case-by-case basis. Completion of the required process is based on the type of program outlined below:

4.1 (For Academic Credit) – Acceptance into an officially recognized exchange, direct, affiliate or faculty-led program or by following the approval process to participate on a non-NDSU program. In these instances, please complete the steps as outlined through the application process for study abroad options through the Office of International Student and Study Abroad Services.

(Not for Academic Credit) – Submit all required information through the International Travel Registry as outlined through the Office of International Student and Study Abroad Services to provide detailed information about international travel dates and destinations and purchase university approved health insurance that cover the dates of travel.

Participant Category	Required Process
Individual Student (for academic credit)	Study Abroad Application
Individual Student (not for academic credit)	International Travel Registry
Group Travel with Program Leader (for academic credit)	Study Abroad Application
Group Travel with Program Leader (not for academic credit)	International Travel Registry
Student Organization Group Travel with Student Program Leader	Student Organization Travel Registry

5. CONDITIONS OF PARTICIPATION, RELEASE FORMS AND EMERGENCY SITUATIONS – Students must read and electronically sign the Conditions of Participation agreement. This agreement outlines requirements, expectations, and responsibilities when participating in any NDSU study abroad program. Students may be required to sign other release forms as necessary; students are required to complete a health questionnaire after acceptance into a study abroad program.

5.1 In the event of an emergency, students are required to follow the instructions provided by ISSAS including any applicable health insurance provider instructions relevant to the program. Students agree to update ISSAS with current and correct contact information, including email address, physical address and phone number.

6. STUDENT CONDUCT AND REMOVAL FROM PROGRAM - While abroad, students are bound by policies in the NDSU Rights and Responsibilities: A Code of Student Conduct, by the rules of the foreign institutions, and by the laws of the geographical location of the program. NDSU may take disciplinary action against students who violate the Code of Student Conduct while participating in a study abroad program.
- 6.1 The program leader or institutional representative is granted reasonable discretion in determining what constitutes a violation and determining appropriate handling of such matters as they arise. Program leaders have the option of initiating reasonable disciplinary actions for misconduct.
- 6.2 If the program leader or institutional representative determines, in consultation with the Associate Vice Provost for Student Affairs or designee, that the student's continued association with the program poses a significant risk of harm to the student or puts the health or safety of other program participants, the academic integrity of the program, or the relationship with the foreign institution or other partners or country at risk, the student may be immediately removed from the program. All expenses incurred due to such removal, including any costs associated with program enrollment, are the responsibility of the student.
- 6.3 In the event of removal from the program, the student must vacate the facilities provided by the program and will be withdrawn from all course work associated with the program. In the event of removal, the student remains responsible for all costs associated with program enrollment, without recourse to a refund.
7. NON-COMPLIANCE - Students who fail to comply with this policy will be subject to disciplinary action under the processes outlined in the Code of Student Conduct. Faculty and staff who are negligent in complying with this policy may have their right to participate in study abroad programs involving students revoked in addition to any other sanctions that may be imposed by NDSU. Appeals of sanctions follow normal NDSU policy.
