SECTION 604

JURISDICTION OF THE VICE PROVOST FOR STUDENT AFFAIRS AND INSTITUTIONAL EQUITY - STUDENT CONDUCT CODE VIOLATIONS

SOURCE: NDSU President

1. The Vice Provost for Student Affairs and Institutional Equity, pursuant to delegated authority from the President, has responsibility for supervision of the process of handling the University's response to student violations of University rules and regulations, including the ultimate imposition of sanctions. All student non-academic conduct that violates university rules and regulations and conduct occurring off-campus which affects the university is considered a responsibility of the Vice Provost for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management.
2. This authority includes the overall supervision of the various administrative committees and boards charged with hearing complaints against students or student organizations for violation of those rules and regulations.
3. Student organizations and university employees are required to inform the Vice Provost for Student Affairs and Institutional Equity whenever action is deemed necessary against a student or student organization which may involve the following committees or boards:
 - a) Student Government Court;
 - b) Inter-Fraternity Standards Board;
 - c) Panhellenic Standards Board.
