

ADVISORY BOARD REPORT

REPORT PERIOD: Academic Year 2021-2022 (August-July)

CHAIR: Mallory Koshiol VICE CHAIR: Heather Kroeker SECRETARY: Tansy Wells

FINANCIAL IMPACT, FUNDRAISING

Funds allocated to support MPH program needs, including scholarships:

The Map the System competition, organized by the Saïd Business School at University of Oxford, England, is a competition that challenges participants to use systems thinking to understand some of the most complex issues the world faces today. Five MPH students received scholarships, $1,000 each, to participate in this competition. One of our MPH students was on the winning team, locally, who then took second place in Oxford.

- » Conducted first fundraising event for Annual Giving Day
- » Assisted in raising more than $6,000
- » Secured more than 41 unique donations

PROGRAM IMPACT

CEPH ACCREDITATION

All advisory board members provided input into the CEPH accreditation plan.

Board Members participated in the 2022 CEPH accreditation site visit on April 21, 2022.

Preliminary accreditation site visit results reinforce program success.

COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP

Jacob Davis, board member, served on the planning committee for American Indian Public Health Day.

CURRICULUM SUPPORT

Instructors

- Heather Kroeker, Applied Community Science
- Tracy Miller, Public Health Surveillance
- Jacob Davis, American Indian Health Equity

Practicum Preceptor

- Mallory Koshiol, Allina Health

Graduate Assistantships

- Tracy Miller, North Dakota Department of Health

ADDITIONAL ACTIVITIES

Developed and finalized NDSU Public Health Advisory Board (The Board) by-laws

Advisory board recruitment:

- » Developed templates for advisory board recruitment
- » Added a new member to the advisory board
- » Commitment to continued diversifying of the board membership

Meetings:

- » Held two advisory board meetings in 2021
- » Attended joint NDSU College of Health Professionals advisory board meeting