

ND Demographics Conference 2018 Call For Posters – November 30, 2017

Call for Posters

2018 North Dakota Demographics Conference - March 20, 2018, Fargo, ND

New this year, the 2018 North Dakota Demographics Conference will be holding a poster session. Interested researchers are invited to submit proposals for a research poster detailing recent and ongoing research in demographics with special attention to research related to North Dakota. We welcome a variety of research fields. Poster topics should showcase work relevant to the conference, including but not limited to population characteristics; the use of socio-economic and demographic data; data collection and use related to economy, health, education, housing, workforce, etc.; and use of tools that facilitate data access and use. Posters will be selected on a competitive basis with an expectation that those presenting posters will be attending the conference. We strongly encourage students to submit posters detailing their work.

Proposals should include:

- Contact and author information
 - Author(s): Full name, Affiliation (Organization), Role (student/faculty/other).
 - Contact person: Full name, Affiliation (Organization), email address, and phone number.
- Proposal description: Proposal title, an abstract of maximum 250 words that details the content of the poster, and one additional paragraph that describes how the poster theme relates and adds knowledge to North Dakota's demographics.

Submissions are due January 10th, 2018. Send submissions electronically to david.flynn@und.edu. Notification of acceptance will be sent on February 1st, 2018. More details will be sent upon acceptance of poster. Please note, for the accepted posters, at least one author must be present at the conference. All poster presenters must register and pay for the conference. The conference offers discounted student fee.
