Complex Manager Position Description

North Dakota State University Department of Residence Life • Division of Finance and Administration

GENERAL POSITION DESCRIPTION

Complex Managers are students employed by the Department of Residence Life whose role it is to support the mission of the Department of Residence Life in the process of facilitating a positive living/learning community in the University Apartments.

The Complex Manager position is considered to be approximately a 15-20 hour-per-week position and is comprised of both “active” time and “available” time. Meetings, administrative work, programming, and providing help to tenants are all examples of active time and constitute only part of the time expectations in the Complex Manager position. The remainder of the time is considered to be more informal available time. It includes time spent living in your apartment or doing personal business while still being available to respond to the needs of tenants.

PRIMARY ROLES

1. Demonstrate positive leadership in the University Apartments and North Dakota State University campus community.

Complex Managers are visible leaders both in the apartments and on the campus. The ability of Complex Managers to carry out their responsibilities is dependent upon personal character and credibility demonstrated in the Complex Manager role. It is important the Complex Managers recognize the impact of their personal behavior and choices on their effectiveness in their Complex Manager role.

The Complex Manager will:

- A. Be a positive role model in job-related and personal behavior by exercising good judgment and demonstrating integrity in job-related and personal decisions.
- B. Abide by Federal and State laws, and the policies outlined in the North Dakota State University Rights and Responsibilities: A Code of Student Conduct.
- C. Conduct themselves in a manner that represents positively the Department of Residence Life, North Dakota State University, and themselves.
- D. Demonstrate sensitivity and promote a climate of diversity and inclusiveness.

2. Assess and respond to the needs of the tenants.

Complex Managers serve as a primary resource and source of support for tenants. In order to maximize the effectiveness in this area, Complex Managers need to invest time, energy and care to the tenants of their communities.

The Complex Manager will:

- A. Become familiar with each tenant in their complex.
- B. Demonstrate care and concern for the wellbeing of tenants and initiate contacts with students who need help or support.
- C. Be available and accessible to tenants.
- D. Be responsive to tenant's questions and needs and refer appropriately.
- E. Read and post all department-approved information.
- F. Have familiarity and knowledge of available services, resources and personnel on campus.
- G. Ensure confidentiality of personal and written communication with tenants and other staff.

3. Develop and maintain an apartment environment which is conducive to student learning.

Complex Managers are expected to work with tenants to create and maintain a community which will contribute to a sense of belonging for all. It is essential that Complex Managers work to create a safe, comfortable environment where tenants can have their basic living needs met.

The Complex Manager will:

- A. Accept responsibility for being on call once every 7 weeks as set forth by the Assistant Director for Residence Life Apartments.

7. Assume responsibility for personal learning and development in the Complex Manager role.

The Complex Manager position is one in which continuous learning occurs. There are numerous opportunities for Complex Managers to enhance their knowledge and experience base in the position, and those opportunities are encouraged and supported by the Department of Residence Life.

The Complex Manager will:

- A. Become familiar with all University Apartments processes and information, including the General Conditions of License Agreement for University Apartments, the Residence Life Calendar Handbook, and other departmental documents.
- B. Attend and participate in all training events. (See Working Agreement)
- C. Attend work safety training sessions.

SPECIAL ASSIGNMENTS

Because of the ever changing needs of the students living in our apartments and the demands placed on each staff person, Complex Managers may have special assignments each year that they will coordinate with the Assistant Director for Residence Life Apartments. These assignments will vary according to the needs of the University Apartments.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS

1. Complex Managers must be a registered North Dakota State University student while serving in their position.
2. Complex Managers must attain 2.5 semester and cumulative grade point average at the time of assumption of duties as a Complex Manager.
3. If at any time a Complex Manager falls below a 2.5 cumulative grade point average, the Complex Manager will enter an academic probation status. A Complex Manager may not be on academic probation with the Department of Residence Life for two consecutive semesters. If so, a decision will be made by the Assistant Director for Residence Life Apartments which is in the best academic interest of the student during the employment period with the Department of Residence Life.

OUTSIDE TIME COMMITMENTS

Because of the unique and specialized nature and responsibilities of the Complex Manager position, an individual accepting this role must be prepared to commit time and energy to performing the expectations to the best of their ability. Establishing and maintaining relationships with tenants and other staff is fundamental to the effective performance of the Complex Manager role, and, as such, parameters on time spent in the living environment are defined.

1. All regular time commitments outside of the Complex Manager position need to be discussed with and approved by the Assistant Director for Residence Life Apartments who will regularly evaluate the ability of the Complex Manager to continue performing their Complex Manager responsibilities. Performance below expected standards will necessitate the Complex Manager relinquishing the outside time commitment or the Complex Manager position itself.

STAFF COVERAGE

The nature of events that occur in our apartment living environment necessitates regular and consistent coverage of staff. The following expectations exist for time off:

1. Complex Managers are on call on a rotating basis every 7 weeks. Duty coverage will begin on Monday and end Sunday. Duty coverage will extend to the entire University apartments complex. The on-duty phone must remain on at all times.
2. Complex Managers are responsible for requesting time off with the Assistant Director for Residence Life Apartments prior to leaving.
3. Complex Managers are expected to be available to assist tenants any time during the day or evening even if they are not on call.

STAFF DISCIPLINE/TERMINATION

The following criteria outlines conditions which, if committed by a Complex Manager, are considered serious enough to warrant disciplinary action or termination from the Complex Manager position. Please note that, this is not a comprehensive list. In the event that a Complex Manager is allegedly involved in a violation of Residence Life and/or University policy, the Complex Manager is also subject to adjudication through the conduct process of the University.

1. Behavior resulting in a felony conviction.
2. Behavior resulting in a misdemeanor conviction that casts reasonable doubt on the likelihood of satisfactory job performance.
3. Violation of University and/or Residence Life Apartment policies and regulations.
