

2024 Conference Team Members

Residence Life Conference Team Members (CTMs) will serve as the main customer service representatives for guests staying in NDSU residence halls during various summer conferences, events, and camps. Additionally, CTM's are responsible for preparing hall spaces for those guests and other tasks needed to prepare and support summer guests.

CTMs can expect to gain experience in the fields of conferences and events. Working in a team environment will assist in developing skills in leadership, teamwork, organization, time management, and communication.

Conference Team Members will:

- Provide customer service for guests staying in the residence halls
 - Staff main desk
 - Complete daily hall rounds
 - Provide on-call coverage when groups are on campus
- Perform administrative duties
 - Prepare residence hall spaces for guests
 - Room setup and teardown (linen placement and removal)
 - Organize keys, signage and other materials
 - Check guests in/out of residence halls
 - Complete paperwork
 - Attend weekly meetings
- Perform other duties as assigned, which may include projects with other on-campus departments and responsibilities that involve physical demands (moving mattresses, lofting beds, etc).

Due to the nature of the position, CTM's will be required to live within a residence hall during the time of employment.

Required Qualifications:

- Excellent communication skills
- Organizational skills and attention to detail
- Effective time management
- Ability to work both independently as well as in a team
- NDSU student (undergraduate or graduate) with a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5

Time Commitment:

CTMs can move into their assigned hall as early as May 17, 2024; the position begins May 21, 2024 and ends on August 10, 2024. CTMs who are hired as student staff for the fall semester may end their contract early to allow for training.

Due to the nature of this position, hours will vary greatly. For example, some weeks may have 5-10 hours, other weeks 35-40. Over the course of the summer, your hours will average about 20 hours/week. Outside commitments/employment are allowed, but must be flexible to the summer conference schedule. With that, team members are able to complete online courses throughout the summer. The CTM supervisor must preapprove employment (including on-campus jobs).

Team members are allowed time off during the summer. There are times when all staff must be present and no time off is allowed. Staff must be present during these times (additional dates may be added as the summer conference schedule is finalized):

- April 25 5-6 p.m. (HD Social)
- May 21 – May 24 (Training)
- June 3-7 (FFA)
- June 14-16, 22-23 (Football Camps)
- July 12-21 (USAW Wrestling)

Compensation:

- Approximately $3,000 over the summer (paid as an hourly wage of $12/hour)
 - Hours per week vary; average 20 hours/week
- FREE room and meal compensation
 - Private room in assigned residence hall

Application Process:

Applications Available – February 5, 2024

Application Deadline – March 1, 2024

Interviews – March 18-22, 2024

Team Announced – March 25, 2024

Applications are online at www.ndsu.edu/reslife/summer and must be submitted by March 1, 2024. To complete the application, a resume and cover letter addressing the qualifications and required skills listed above must also be uploaded when applying.

NDSU does not discriminate in its programs and activities on the basis of age, color, gender expression/identity, genetic information, marital status, national origin, participation in lawful off-campus activity, physical or mental disability, pregnancy, public assistance status, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, spousal relationship to current employee, or veteran status, as applicable. Direct inquiries to: Vice Provost, Title IX/ADA Coordinator, Old Main 201, 701-231-7708, ndsu.eoaa@ndsu.edu.