How can I see my student’s assigned room?

Visit your student’s hall and room virtually! Each hall’s webpage includes the following:

- Building 360 degree tour
- Room photos, renderings and floor plans
- Links to information on bed sizes, lofts and linen information
Are students going to have single rooms?

While another university in North Dakota has made the decision that all on-campus students will have single rooms, this is not currently planned for NDSU students.

At this time, students will be able to maintain their room and roommate status for the 2020-2021 academic year.

What if my student doesn’t like his/her roommate?

Our staff is trained to help students learn to share a living space. To lay a healthy groundwork, our staff facilitates Roommate Success Plans that address common areas for potential future conflict.
I received mail about dorm room linens from New Jersey, is this legit?

Yes! NDSU partners with a company from New Jersey, called OCM. OCM specializes in making your room, your home. From bed sets designed for XL mattresses to wall decor that is hall-approved, you can get everything you need and want at ocm.com/nds. Don’t forget, all proceeds help fund events and scholarships in your hall!

What Do I Need to Know About Parking?

If your student plans to park on campus, a permit is required. Permit sales begin in July and are available to purchase online at www.ndsu.edu/parking/. The annual permit fee is $185.

Downtown parking is not available, but students may ride MATBUS for free.

Parking is managed separately from housing, so questions should be directed to the parking office. www.ndsu.edu/parking
