THIS WEEK IN RHA...

This week is RHA Week! We are putting on events all week across campus to help people relax and have fun. Our first event was yesterday and they continue the rest of this week through Saturday. Tonight we will be having a Palentine's Day event in the Mathew Living Learning Center West Classroom from 7:00-8:00 pm complete with Therapy Dogs! We would love to see you at the events this week, some come check them out and have some fun while you are at it. This is a great opportunity to meet some new people and also relax with a fun study break.

Check out the Facebook page if you would like more information!

LEADERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES AND REMINDERS

Reminders

We are starting to get pretty far into the semester. Whether that means more projects, exams, or homework, it can be stressful. Set yourself up for success by rocking that first exam and staying on top of your assignments. Study with friends, fellow residents in the lounges, or take a trip to ACE Tutoring in the basement of West Dining Center, whatever you need to help cover those tough subjects or just give you a motivation boost to get the work done. Remember, the more work you do now, the less stress you will have at the end of the semester.

Have fun and best of luck this semester!

RHA Executive Board Opportunity

Do you want an opportunity to grow your leadership skills? Do you want to be a part of an executive team that represents students living on campus? Do you want to have fun while helping students have a positive experience on campus? If you answered yes to any of these questions, the position of Vice President/National Communications Coordinator-In Training might be for you. Please contact current executive board members if you have any questions (office hours and the RHA email are listed on the last page). This is a great opportunity that you should definitely consider. The application is now open at: https://www.ndsu.edu/reslife/rha/rha_vpnccl_application/

HALL SPOTLIGHTS

We are going to highlight the great things that have been going on in residence halls around campus. This will include pictures and descriptions of the events to help inspire ideas and reward the students' hard work.

REED/JOHNSON

Super Bowl Party

We had about 100+ students show up and cheer for their favorite team. We had Buffalo Wild Wings, chips, drinks, ice cream and pizza rolls! The lounge was never empty and we had positive feedback after the event! We would like to thank everyone who helped with the party!

THOMPSON

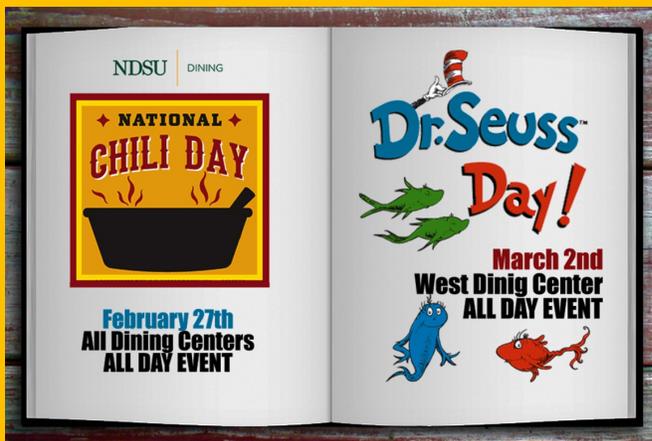

Thompson Hall would like to highlight their Chinese New Years Celebration which happened on February 11th. The event had traditional snacks and foods such as lychee jelly, rice crackers, fortune cookies, egg rolls, and potstickers. This was accompanied by a Chinese character drawing contest, a lantern riddle game, and a ping pong tournament all played for prizes of Chinese rice candy. We had a great turn out and residents seemed to enjoy it.

LIBRARIES

NDSU Libraries hosts a Human Library

- We are excited to announce we are hosting our first Human Library™! The Human Library™ is designed to build a positive framework for conversations that can challenge stereotypes and prejudices through dialogue.
- The Human Library is a place where real people are on loan to readers.
- A place where difficult questions are expected, appreciated and answered.
- Become a reader and check out books from different walks of life.
- Our event takes place on Tuesday, February 28th at 4:00 p.m. in the lower level of the Main Library. At the Human Library™, readers will check out a book either alone or with other readers. The books and readers will engage in a 20-minute conversation about their topic. Everyone will be given a short break and readers can renew his or her book to continue the conversation, or check out a different book to engage with someone new.
- The task of our books is to share their perspective to their readers and not try to persuade them of certain beliefs. The task of our readers is to ask difficult questions with respect and be willing to listen.
- Borrow a refugee, a campus-parking official, a Native American, an International Student, and more.

 HUMAN LIBRARY
FEB. 28TH @ 4:00 P.M.
Main Library, Lower Level
